

THE POISON OF THE SERPENT.
REFUTATION OF ULRICH ZWINGLI'S 67 THESES ON "INTERPRETATION ALONE".

C.R.Y.&S

THIS IS THE PRESENT WILL OF GOD:

"UNIFY ALL THE CHURCHES INTO ONE AND ONLY ONE".

In the name of Jesus Christ:

In order that all men may know their Creator intelligence is the Power with which God has clothed his Creation, so that Man may not again be deceived nor Temptation have Power over the will of his children.

Unfortunately, this Divine Power with which the Creator has clothed his Creation is used by many to do the opposite; instead of rejecting the Lie, they use this Power to make the Lie the means par excellence to enslave the will of their fellow men. They follow the path of Satan, who, knowing the laws of the Science of Good and Evil, used his intelligence to drag Mankind away from their Creator; and what is more monstrous, to make Man an enemy of God, and declare War upon His Kingdom.

Dragged to this battlefield the nations of all ages have been fighting, since the Fall and Ruin of the First Kingdom of the World, whose king was Adam, father of Noah, father of Abraham, father of David, father of Jesus, son of Mary of Nazareth, daughter of Sarah, daughter of Eve, in the wrong army.

The Divine Power that was given us to create a World established on Truth, Justice and Peace, by the Hatred and Envy of Satan towards the King of Heaven, whose Throne he desired to make his own: that Divine Power became in our ancient parents what claws and brute force are to beasts. In our fathers Intelligence ceased to be a Creative Power and became a Destroying Power. The human being came to be related to the beasts, among them the most lethal, the most dangerous, for himself, for all of them, and for the Earth itself.

At the height of the Second Millennium of our Era, especially in the 16th Century, Intelligence sought to free itself from the Law by which that Creative Power had been seeking its Way to its true Nature. Christian Civilization, once the New World was discovered, was on the verge of making a great qualitative leap in History. So I am not lying when I say that at the beginning of the 16th Century the European Christian World found itself in the same position, although the circumstances were different, in which the Mesopotamian Kingdom found itself under Adam, its first King, the Alulim of the Sumerian Royal List. That First King of men was on the verge of making a Marvelous Historical Leap: the Projection of the natural geographical boundaries of his Kingdom to the Four Regions of the Earth. That is to say, to extend his Civilization to the fullness of the families of the world.

It could not be. An unnatural, strange factor intervened in that Project, which had remained in the soul of a “Hidden God”, who, manipulating the circumstances of the Ontogenetic Adolescence that Man was living, took advantage of his Innocence to conquer his Thought and relate it to that of the Prince of Darkness, that same “Hidden God” who, surviving his own decadence, made the Mind of another man, Luther by name, his own. Enslaved by this “Hidden God” he came to impose in the 16th Century not the Law of Universal Fraternity in God the Creator, but the Law of the Dictatorship of Princes elevated to divine status as the path to the Civilization of the Fullness of Nations.

To win the Will of that First King, son of God, Adam, another son of God, Satan, put on the garments of an angel sent by God to open the door of Holy War to the Kingdom of Adam. Not by Love but by War the First King would extend the borders of his Kingdom to all the families of the Earth. According to that “Hidden God” who lives in Satan, such was the Will of God, and so it was to be fulfilled.

Thousands of years later, the Redemption already accomplished, Christian Europe already affirmed, although under mortal attack, and having set its feet on the other shore of the Ocean, the Prophecy of the Lord and King Jesus Christ fulfilled: His legs on both shores of the Ocean, Satan returned to the charge, and dressing his servant as God's envoy he sowed in the European Christian Kingdom the Seed of the Fratricidal Civil War which, if all went well for the Enemy of the Divine King and of Man, from within would open to the enemy the door to Rome. Once the Kingdom of Jesus Christ in Europe was destroyed, the work of thousands of years would be reduced to dust, and Civilization, sunk forever and ever in bestiality, would never be reborn. God, Creator of Mankind, would have lost the Battle for the Salvation of Man, and the King of Heaven, Jesus Christ, would have to kneel before Satan, his Enemy.

Needless to say, a Plan of Destruction of that magnitude was not planned overnight. Satan had been planning such a Battle for centuries. The Dream of the Catholic Bishops after the Victory over the medieval convulsions of the two preceding centuries relaxed the Vigilance of the Cardinals, and giving themselves the confidence of Invincibility, they gave themselves up to all the vices and perversions against which Christ gave His Life. The perversion of the thought in which they established themselves, that as long as they remained within the cassock not even the Almighty Judge himself could call them to account for their crimes, a thought which was the Origin of the Reformation when it was used precisely against them, was the cause of the cry of War against the Church which was heard as much in Germany as in Italy and England.

But if the Servants of the Church were perverse and in the conviction that not even if they violated the Mother of Christ could they be judged by Christ as long as they committed their crimes ad maiorem dei gloriam; the wickedness in which the Protestant Rebels settled was to confuse the servants with the Bride of the Lord.

The servants of the Lord are the servants of his Wife. The Priest is the Servant of the Church; but the Church is the Wife of the Lord. And since when can the Lord and his Wife be condemned for the perversion of his servants?

The servants will answer before their Lord for the crimes by which the Glory of their Holy Bride was stained. It is the servants, not the Wife, who will sit before the Tribunal of the Lord to answer for their crimes and offenses.

This differential Reality between the priest and the Church was what the Protestant Rebels, blinded by Satan, did not know how to understand. The Lord and King already told his People: “If your arm or your eye scandalizes you, take it off, cut it off, it will be better for you to enter the Kingdom of God one-armed or one-eyed than with your arm and your eye to be thrown into Hell”.

From the Bishop of Rome to the humblest priest all are priests, and as such priests all are servants of the Church, and as such form part of her Body, but while the Priest is under the Law of the Lord, and if sick with malignity must be amputated from the Body, the Church is the Bride of the King of Heaven and as such remains for Eternity at the side of her Lord, of whom she is His Visible Body before His Universal Sempiternal Kingdom.

We say nothing more. Nor do I say anything less. The evil Pornocracy into which the servants of the Church fell while the King of Heaven was opening to His Kingdom on Earth the frontiers to the New World, is known to all.

The historian who overlooks the filth that those servants cast upon the Glory of the Bride of the Lord is not a historian, he is a wretch. To pretend to annul the Law of the Lord over His Body by reason of the service to servants installed in crime, making of the Cassock an Exorcism against the Lord Himself and Judge of all His House, is not of historians, it is of slaves without morals, without law, without honor or dignity.

The Dilemma in which the Hidden God of the so-called Protestant Reformation locked one and the other has its Original Reflection in the Fall of Adam and Eve, and in the consequent Fratricide among their children. Remember the Thirty Years' War!

Obviously if the servants were criminals and served the Devil in the belief of serving Christ, the others believing to serve Christ served the Devil by offering the Head of the Bride of Christ on a platter to the princes of this world.

Certainly God the Father foresaw this Contention from before He released the Devil from his Prison at the beginning of the Second Millennium of our Era. His Son knew this internal Contention and prophesied it in the Parable of the Evil Sowing. Let us remember it:

“And the Son of God proposed another parable unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is like unto one that sowed good seed in his field. But while his people slept, the enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat and went away. When the grass grew and bore fruit, then the tares appeared. And the servants came to the master and said to him:

Lord, hast thou not sown good seed in thy field? whence then is it that there are tares?

And the Son of God answered them, That is the work of an enemy.

They said to him:

Wilt thou that we go and pluck it up?

And the Son of God said to them, No, lest in pulling up the tares you root up the wheat also. Let both grow until the harvest; and at harvest time I will say to the reapers, Take the tares first and bind them in bundles to burn them, and the wheat gather them up and shut them in the barn”.

Complementing this Doctrine, the Son of God himself sent one of his ministers to announce to his Church the Decree of Deliverance from the Evil Sower, the Devil, after one Millennium, on Earth. For it is understood that the parable comes from God, and the spirit of Jesus being the spirit of Prophecy, in the Parable God announced HIS Judgment ad eternum against Satan at the Final Judgment of the Old World, which would be followed by a Decree of temporary Deliverance until his Banishment from Creation. When the Parable is given, the Christian Field did not yet exist, so that the Sowing of the Evil One could not take place until that Field included Christianity in its boundaries, and hence the Son, knowing by the Prophecy in the Parable the Decree of the Father, continually asked his servants the Bishops of Christendom to be vigilant. Vigilance that at the same time could not prevent their fall into that Dream that would be taken advantage of by the Evil Sower to sow his Fratricidal Tares.

Now, the Prophecy being true, as seen in the events of the Division of the Churches, we understand that since God does nothing in the world without men, and does everything in men, the Devil could not do his Evil Sowing but in men. For which, as he already did in Eden, he would have to tempt and conquer for his project of destruction of Christianity, necessary destruction to destroy Humanity, as it is seen that he was about to do in the XX Century during the Second World War, where again Germany returned to lend him her body to work that destruction; in order to carry out his Evil Sowing during the Night of the Bishops, Satan would have to win over a handful of men for his Sowing.

The Question is why God released the Devil, a question I have already answered in The Divine History of Jesus Christ. Returning to the answer, I say that given the circumstances of the Deliverance and the Banner of the Salvation of the Fullness of the nations being on the Horizon, God saw it necessary, on the one hand, to recreate in the Century of Luther the event that took place in the Century of Adam, so that the Future could be liberated and clothed with the Power of the Jesus Christ Intelligence our Century would armor the Will of the Human Race with the Thought of God; and on the other hand, to show Heaven and Earth the reason for the Sentence ad eternum against Satan and his generation of rebels against the Law of the Creator, who, not having been condemned and having the Opportunity to ask Mercy of their Judge before the whole Creation, preferred, once again, to be banished to the Hell of Outer Darkness rather than to continue to live in a World where the Light of Truth is the sun that gives Life to all beings.

The judgment that men deserve this Freedom of YAHWEH GOD, THE FATHER, to do according to His Wisdom what is best for the universe of the peoples who, as children of His Creative Power and Citizens of the kingdom of His Son, live by His Love for Life, is not supported by Intelligence, that is to say, it cannot be submitted to any critical judgment, neither by man nor by any other created being, of whatever world it may be; and not for fear of Freedom of Judgment, but because the Wisdom of the Creator is perfect in all the dimensions of His Nature. To think that the Creature can judge the Wisdom of his Creator is in itself an abomination, especially when we are not talking about a Creator who keeps away from his creation like a beast that stops his puppy and abandons it to the law of the jungle; not at all, our Creator presents himself to us as a Father, invests us with all the rights of a child of God, and makes us participants of all the natural guarantees implicit in the Citizenship of his Kingdom. Our Creator does not relate to his Creation from Power to Power, but from the Love of Father to Son. To subject, therefore, His Wisdom to the power of our Intelligence is to challenge God from Power; greater insanity cannot be given. From the love of a child of God such insanity rises to the rank of abomination when the thinker claims as an innate right of his being to judge the pillars of the spirit of God.

God, in Jesus Christ, will judge all, servants of the Church and servants of the Devil.

Sticking to our house, we have to say that we are no one to judge the men who played the leading role in the events of the Past. But Intelligence has been given to us to uncover the Lie, and to undo chains painted in gold by the Devil and Death to lure all the ignorant into the same prison in which the author and “Hidden God” of the Reformation, Satan by name, will be imprisoned for Eternity.

The 67 theses of Zwingli accompanied those of Luther in the general scheme that the Devil made for the Destruction of the Catholic Church and the Conquest of Christian Europe by the Ottoman Empire. We already know what that Evil Plan came to. The Ottoman Empire has disappeared from the Earth. The Wife of the Lord and Mother of his Offspring is more alive than ever, and, although in her Old Age, she has begotten Offspring to her Lord.

What is past is past. We are not the ones to judge anyone, but we are the ones to fight the Lies that have been bequeathed to the Christian nations, so that, freed from them, they may find the Door to the lost Universal Fraternity open. And in Unity may the nations discover the Image of Man in God that was erased from their souls by the Fall of Adam and the Treachery of Satan.

Zwingli, servant of the Devil, though in his ignorance, for both he and his brothers in arms against the Church believed they were serving God; Zwingli (anti-Christian, as I will demonstrate in the analysis of the theses he published and defended by stepping on the corpse of all who opposed him) based his anti-Catholic Thought on the 67 lapidary sentences that follow and that I will open in channel so that once the mask is torn off, the face of the true author and producer of the Protestant Rebellion against the Bride of the Lord, her Spouse Jesus Christ and God, Father of both Bridegrooms, can be seen.

PART ON

THE SWORD AND THE WORD

CHAPTER ONE

1.-All those who say that the Gospel is worthless unless it is confirmed by the Church, err and offend God.

We begin.

And I ask: Of what Gospel is the author of this thesis speaking? Has there ever existed any other Gospel outside that which the Holy Spirit sealed with His Blood, and which, bequeathed by Christ to His Catholic Bride as an everlasting inheritance, She defended during the sixteen centuries that elapsed from the Birth to the Reformation, has continued to defend in its Original Purity from the sixteenth century to our days, and will continue to defend with its Existence for Eternity?

Because the Gospel of the Catholic Church has only one Spirit: Namely: the Firstborn Son of God is the Only Begotten of YAHWEH GOD, HIS FATHER: JESUS CHRIST, True God of True God, is that same Jesus who became incarnate in Mary, wife of Joseph, and who receiving from his Divine Father a New Name, Christ, ascended into Heaven to sit on the Throne of the Universal King with the Sacred name of JESUS CHRIST.

This is the Gospel of God, which having been denied from the beginning by many, was attacked at the Council of Nicaea with the Holy Catholic Creed. Eternal Victory that later men would deny again, even out of the Faith, not frontally so as not to be accused of being heretics, but subliminally, until with the Reformation Arius came out of the Tomb again to infect the Christian mind with his Denial of being Jesus Christ God the Only Begotten Son.

History and the children of God know that the Gospel that the Lord Jesus in his Testament bequeathed to his Bride, the Catholic Church, was confirmed by YAHWEH GOD, THE FATHER, in the Council of Nicaea, gathered by the Holy Spirit in the Name of the Son of God to be proclaimed the ROMAN CREED the Sign of the Universal Christian Confession. And whoever does not Confess it denies God, Father and Son, denying that the Holy Spirit lives in both, and hence He said: "Whoever sees me, sees the Father", and: "Have I been so long time with you and yet you have not known Me?". For, in fact, the Spirit who lives in the Father lives in the Son, for which reason it is confessed: "Two persons one Spirit", by the work and grace of which God became incarnate in the Person of the Son, confirming that, before the Incarnation of the Holy Spirit who lives in the Father and in the Son, the Father said: “He will be called God with us”, because, indeed God became Man, and when Christ was born, that Spirit became flesh so that the whole world might see God, and made Man He lives with His Creation for Eternity. For before Christ the Absence of the Creator caused that void in His Creation, origin of the Wars that shook the foundations of His Kingdom, against whose cause He opened Creation to all His children, who came to be spectators and participants in the Creative Act of Life. Frustrated that revolutionary measure, before the Event of the Fall of the First Man and the Declaration of War against the Spirit of God, the Answer of the Divine Wisdom was to give Flesh to His Spirit, and flesh of Man, begetting the third Person of the Trinity: Christ, Head of the House of the sons of God, Spouse of the Catholic Church, Servant of God, Himself “God with Us”.

Therefore, having been established in that Council by YAHWEH GOD, THE FATHER: that the True and Only Gospel that descended from Heaven is the one that the Bride of Christ received in Inheritance from the hand of the Apostles: How then can there be any other Gospel than the one confirmed by God in the Council of Nicaea in exclusive and everlasting property of the Holy Mother Roman Catholic and Apostolic Church?

I ask: How many gospels knew their golden age since the first of all was written by the Holy Spirit?

They were called the Apocrypha. These were written by magicians and Judeo-Christians who sought to manipulate the masses, and the others to confuse the true Christians. The reading of such anti-Christian pamphlets did not bear fruit beyond remaining in gnostic circles with no future. At the Council of Nicaea the Holy Spirit, who lives in the Bride of the Lord, cast into the fire those infancy gospels, and other stories of pseudo-apostles who put on the mask of angels of light, imitating the Ancient Serpent, Satan, the Devil, father of all lies. By doing so, God confirmed as His True and Only Gospel the Catholic Biblical Canon, Inheritance of the Church according to the Testament of her Bridegroom and Lord.

Likewise the gospel of Arius was cast into the fire by God. And with that Arian gospel were the various gospels that, wrapped in angelic cassocks, pretended to come from God. In such a way and manner that once entered into her Inheritance, “for where there was a Testament the death of the Testator was necessary”, the Church received from God the Confirmation of the Gospel that was bequeathed to her by her Spouse, and no one can come with another gospel than that which the Spouse of the Lord and Mother of His Offspring possesses in Inheritance: unless it comes from the Devil, the Enemy of the Crown of Jesus Christ, her Spouse and everlasting Spiritual Head. So when She says: “The Body of Christ”, and the People answer “Amen”, the People believe and live that She is that Body, of which the Priest is a living part.

Therefore: Who and who were those thieves who sought to raise up men to disinherit the Bride from whom the Lord God, our King Jesus Christ, owed Descendants?

Did God give the Son of His Heart a Wife with barren womb, dry ground that would never bear fruit? Then why did the Holy Spirit say: “The whole Creation awaits the birth of the sons of the Lord, the Glory of the Liberty of the sons of God by Inheritance”.

Again: Whose blood was shed in Italy, Spain, France and Greece during the three centuries from the Resurrection to the Council of Nicaea? Was not that the price that the Catholic Church and her peoples paid for the Gospel in everlasting ownership? For though received in property by the Testament of her Lord, the price of keeping it in her hands and preserving it until the end of time in her Power was paid with Italian, Spanish, French and Greek blood. So having Confirmed the Gospel at the price of Roman Catholic Blood, who was that thief who came to rob the Church of her Inheritance?

He does not offend who speaks the truth. The truth offends those who love lies. God does not err, he errs who believes he can confront God and bring the Creator of the Universe to his knees.

In this First Thesis a thief of souls discovered his cards, his intentions. The magnitude of the hypocrisy with which he signed his theses is discovered in the following:

2.-Here is a summary of the Gospel: Our Lord Jesus Christ, the true Son of God, has made known to us the will of his heavenly Father and by his innocent death has redeemed us and reconciled us with God.

The hypocrisy of the wolf under the skin of the lamb could not be more transparent. The bestiality of the intelligence of the people he addresses is no less crystalline.

The writer presents the thesis as if for 16 centuries no nation and no man had heard such words, as if the Holy Spirit in the Apostles had not sprinkled the nations of Roman Europe with this Gospel.

The writer, Zwingli, took the reader for an animal incapable of understanding a single letter, and who preferred to justify his intellectual disability by voluntarily gouging out his eyes. The reader did not want to see that the signer was a thief of souls who, to bless his theft, appropriated the Gospel confirmed by the Catholic Church at the Council of Nicaea, received from the hands of the Holy Spirit, who in turn received it from the hands of the Son of God, to whom it was entrusted by God, his Father, and by both, Son and Holy Spirit, sealed with Blood and given as an inheritance to the Bride of the Lord Jesus, from whom he would have offspring, waiting for whom the whole creation would keep its heart in a fist: God's Fist.

Hypocrisy that the Swiss dressed of wisdom and counting on the illiteracy and ignorance of the reader to whom he wrote, the Swiss, affirming what he knew, hid what he did not say. Because if Zwingli had really believed in what he affirmed and had known the origin of the Fratricidal Seed he was sowing, he would have cut off his hands rather than continue spreading the Seed of the Devil in Switzerland.

Christ Jesus is the Model of Priesthood that came down from God to abolish the Aaronite priesthood and to bring to its eternal Perfection the Adoration of the Creator. Hence He is called by the Church "Lord", because in Her the Scripture was fulfilled that since the Fall was announced with the Redemption: "You shall ardently seek your Husband, who will rule over you". And found, celebrated the Eternal Wedding, the Word of the Creator was consummated in the Unity of the two persons in the Marriage, becoming one single thing, in this case, being a Spiritual Marriage: Head and Body. And hence the Holy Spirit never tires of repeating that “Christ Jesus is the Head of the Church”, and the College of Priests, the Church, His Body.

But we sons have in the Son of God our King, so that for his Wife He is Christ Jesus: “the Lord”, and for her sons, born of this Eternal Spiritual Marriage, He is Jesus Christ: “the King”.

This is the Fruit of the Gospel of the Spirit. And not only is there no other “gospel” but the one Confirmed by God and by Him bequeathed to the Wife of His Son, our King Jesus Christ, but he who preaches another gospel comes from the Devil, and his king and lord is Satan, under whose banner, as will be seen during this analysis, rode the signer of this anti-Catholic gospel. His anti-Christianity is flagrant when he says:

3.- Therefore Christ is the only way of salvation for all men who were, are and will be.

A statement behind which the Swiss hid his true face. Zwingli did not announce the Christ of God, of whom the Holy Spirit, signing his Declaration with his Blood, said again and again that Christ Jesus is the Head of the Church, His Body, according to the Omniscient and Almighty Decree of YAHWEH GOD, THE FATHER: “The two shall be one Being, a single Reality: Christ”.

So that the Christ Jesus being the Way, there can be no Way outside the Catholic Church, His Wife. Or can one follow the Head but not the Body of Him whom one follows? Did not the Apostles seal the everlasting Unity between Christ and His Wife, to whose Wedding they were invited while the Lord was among them? Did they not give to Christ Jesus’s Wife the Testament of her Husband, whose Gospel has been hers from that Day to ours?

Can what God united with the Blood of the Holy Spirit be separated by the Devil?

Does a Creature dare to challenge his Creator to a duel to the death and believe in his insanity to be able to defeat the Lord of Infinity and Eternity, YAHWEH GOD, Father of Jesus Christ?

The hypocrisy of the undersigned is that of that Evil Serpent who approached Eve with poisoned words enclosed in a golden bottle. Zwingli writes: “Christ is the only way of salvation”. Hallelujah! Words never heard in the mountains of the Helvetic cantons, words that never knew echo among the great peaks of the Swiss Alps. “Ladies and Gentlemen: the Way is Christ, yesterday, today and forever,” and the wild people of the mountains bend their knees and say:

Amen amen amen amen amen, Luther is God, and Zwingli His prophet.

4.-Whoever seeks or indicates another door errs and is even a murderer of souls and a thief.

Indeed, Zwingli himself, by closing the Door of the Church, the Body of Jesus Christ, denounces himself as a murderer and a thief of souls. For of whom is he speaking and whom is he denouncing in saying that?

Is it not written in the Gospel confirmed by the Church that the Door is Jesus, and that Jesus is the Christ of God?

Was the speaker accusing the Church for having lied to the world and told it that the Door to God, and therefore to eternal Life, was and is her Husband, Christ Jesus? Or what this Zwingli intended was to put another door to eternal life that was not and could not be other than himself?

For we know that the Door is the Word, who came down from Heaven and became Man, the Wonderful Work of God, who in his Prophets already announced it saying: "I will do such a Wonderful Work that if I told you about it you would not believe it". Indeed, they saw it and did not believe it.

Instead of speaking, God gave His Doctrine a Body that could be touched, seen, talked to. Christ Jesus was that Marvelous Work announced in His Prophets. The Doctrine was Him, He was the Door. A Living, Divine Door. And whoever brings another doctrine and separates the Wife from her Husband, is a murderer of souls, a thief in the service of Hell.

It is therefore logical that the thief denounces his enemy for what he is, in order to confuse the reader and lead him away from the Gate of Paradise, which is Christ Jesus, to the gate of Hell.

The source of the cunning of that servant of the Evil Sower is discovered in the following thesis.

5. Therefore, all those who teach false doctrines saying that they are equal to the Gospel or that they are worth more than the Gospel ignore what the Gospel is.

And what was this servant of the Evil Sower doing if not teaching a false doctrine according to which God did not give a Wife to his Son?

Does not even in the translations of these evil servants read that the Bridegroom was among the Guests, his Disciples? Who was his Bride?

Did not the Holy Spirit say so?: "Christ Jesus is the Head of the Church". And Head of the Church, the Church is that Body in which the Word of the Almighty and Omniscient Creator of the Cosmos is fulfilled: “You shall ardently seek your Husband, who will rule over you”, that is to say, “He will be her Lord”. In whose Union the Almighty Word of YAHWEH GOD THE FATHER comes to Life when He says: “The two of them, Wife and Husband, shall be one: a Unique Being, a Sempiternal and Indivisible Reality”.

Was not this the Doctrine of the Holy Spirit who, becoming an Apostle in the Image and Likeness of the Lord, sowed the Seed of eternal Life in the Roman nations? What falsehood did the Wife of Christ teach to the European nations? What Gospel other than that which was bequeathed to her by her Husband did she defend during the 16 centuries since the Resurrection? What was this servant of the Evil Sower accusing the Wife of the Lord of? Was he manipulating the pornocracy of the servants to kill the Wife of the Lord?

Truly those servants will answer for their conduct, by whose acts the Name of Christ Jesus’s Bride was blasphemed, and the Judgment of the Lord will be according to Justice. But the Judgment on those who used that perversion of the servants to enter the House of the Lord seeking to kill his Wife, how will it be? May God take them confessed on that Day, for it is justice that the master and his servants should be subject to the same condemnation!

Who then is he who is ignorant of what the Gospel is but he who does not understand that Christ is the Spirit and Doctrine of God Made Man, whose Flesh is the Catholic Church, His Holy Wife and Mother of His Offspring, as ordained by God the Father from before they were both conceived, as it is written, “Thy Offspring shall take hold of the gates of their Enemies”.

Evidently this Offspring did not refer to the House of Abraham, since his nation was destroyed by his enemies. But to the House of Christ, to Whose offspring He bequeathed in His Testament the Victory over the Enemies of His Kingdom.

This is the Gospel of God for which His Son laid down His Life. And being Almighty, He bent His Knees before the Wisdom of His Father, in Whose Heart the Hope of Salvation of the fullness of the Human Race was entrusted in Testament to His Wife, the Church, from Whom would come, as to Sarah in her Old Age, that Offspring begotten to Overcome.

Marvelous Work from the beginning to the End is that of God in His Son. Work against which the Evil Sower rose up and hiring servants, whom he hid under a cassock, put in their mouths the poison of Hatred with which they would lead the Christian nations to the Fratricidal Civil War in which they have lived since the Protestant Rebellion until the end of the 20th Century.

If Zwingli and his brothers in the Antichrist had known the Wisdom of God they would have cut out their tongues before uttering a single word against the Catholic Church, the Bride of the Lord, Christ Jesus: the Word made flesh, the Gospel, the Living Doctrine of God in the Body of Man.

6.-Because Christ Jesus is the chief and captain by God promised to men and by God sent.

The servants of the Evil Sower made the Christology of the Church their own in order to launch it against the Church itself and rise up as heroes before a people of ignorant and brutes, intellectually disabled in the things of Heaven and God.

The cassock was the mask that the Devil gave to his servants to hide the origin of the infernal light that illuminated their faces. And yet in their words one discovers their contempt for the Son of God, whose Divine Glory they reduce to being a mere captain and chief of the armies of God.

The Glory of the Almighty King that God has given to His Kingdom, at whose feet He has placed all His Creation and in whose Hands YAHWEH GOD has placed the life and death of all the peoples of His Creation, Jesus Christ: God, the Only Begotten Son, the Lord who with His Omnipotent Word commanded the infinite stars of the Heavens to take their places in the Constellations of the Firmament... Yes, the Glory of the Lord of all that exists on Earth reduced to that of a mere chief and captain..... The Glory of the Almighty Son of God who with his Arm crushed the Head of the Prince of Darkness and opened for us the Way to the Tree of Eternal Life, whose Fruit is LOVE.... The Glory of the Son by whom the Heart of God beats, and his Spirit lives in Happiness... reduced to that of a mere captain and chief.

Here is the gospel of Zwingli. To all this and nothing but this was reduced the new gospel of this servant of the Evil Sower. The pride of the brutes and savage Alpine mountaineers was saved, exalted, and glorified thanks to this apostle of this new gospel who brought the Son of God down from his Throne and lowered him to the height of any other man, a mere captain and chief ... That yes, promised to men and sent by God ...

7.-... that he might be the eternal salvation and the head of all believers. These are his body which, without him, would be a dead body, incapable of undertaking anything.

Truly, only those who have never read the Fathers of the Church could assume a single word of this messenger of darkness as if this evil apostle were preaching a doctrine never heard before. In view of this it is not surprising that these messengers blinded all the people who followed them by closing the Door to the Church Fathers by the subterfuge of “the Bible Alone”.

Evidently the Press had hardly been invented, and barely 1% of the European population of the time knew how to read and write. This detail is hidden by all the historians of the 16th century. The illiteracy of the European population of the 16th century was absolute. And not only in the lower social classes, but also in many of the houses belonging to the aristocratic classes signed with an X.

The Renaissance, so famous today, was a phenomenon of the élite. Today we marvel at Michelangelo, Raphael, Galileo, and their mates, but in those days, on the ground, the Renaissance, like Humanism, was an elitist movement. The vast majority of the European population was illiterate, ignorant and, consequently, brutish.

The Anti-Catholic Rebellion closed the doors to the Renaissance in the nations that, crushed by the Protestant Puritanism, closed the ways to the Dissemination of the Knowledge of the Fathers of the Church, on the one hand, and to the Classical Philosophical and Scientific Heritage, on the other. They had the Bible, they no longer needed to read any other book.

The Crime against Civilization that, once the Printing Press was discovered, the Protestant Rebellion committed by blinding those ways and reducing everything to the Bible, as if the Bible had been discovered and never known before, is a crime against Humanity that, resulting in the Thirty Years' War, weighs on the Conscience of the nations that, cultivating in the future that blindness and the corresponding hatred, laid the foundations of the World Wars of the 20th Century.

The Cultivation of the Classical Languages that the Renaissance with so much care gave to Humanism, cultivation of which was expected to produce an elevation of the European Intelligence through the access of the nations to the Heritage of the Fathers and Classical Sciences, was betrayed by an Anti-Catholic Rebellion that made use of the immorality of blasphemous servants to continue imprisoning the Christian peoples in the brutality that comes from ignorance.

The crime against Humanity of those whose Holy War was the destruction of the enemy created in their heads, and who made the life of the whole universe depend on their own, sowed the Hatred of the Catholic Nations, a Fanaticism that in time would lead them all to the battlefield of Gog and Magog, where the Master of such Rebels hoped to destroy the Christian Civilization under the boots of Stalin and Hitler.

It seems natural that some clever people take advantage of the ignorance of so many illiterate people to set up a system of life in which they will be the new gods, they will live as such and as such they will kill anyone who rises up to ruin their business. This has always been so.

The Chosen Ones of the "Hidden God" of the Protestant Reformation killed many, and died resting on the waves of the sea of blood they shed to the health of their psychopathic egos. Psychopathology that did not admit anyone to tell them what is truth and what is lie. Psychopathology by which they were in direct communication with God, and from God they received the order to kill all those who opposed their designs to carry out the destruction of the Catholic Church.

From the Devil nothing else could be expected... but from men raised by that Church?

He who is born of a Traitor becomes a traitor. The Master betrayed God, his servants betrayed the Wife of the Lord. As the wise man said, "Nothing new under the sun." For to say that without Jesus Christ every man is dead, and to pretend to make believe that something new is said by saying "that he might be eternal salvation and the head of all believers. These are His body which, without Him, would be a dead body, incapable of undertaking anything"... sounds like such enormous imbecility that deriving from it we understand the enormity of the ignorance in which the peoples of the 16th century lived.

In truth Jesus Christ is the Head of all Creation by will of his Father. He is Almighty King, Omniscient Universal Judge, Omnipotent Lord and Universal High Priest, Head of the House of the sons of God, so that everything that exists has life for Love of Him. In short, this is the Doctrine of the Holy Spirit of “the Fathers of the Church”. Before the Evil Sowing began in Germany this Doctrine was already written; it was the Legacy of the so-called “Church Fathers”.

However this Thesis is not referring to this Doctrine. Not at all. The speaker is challenging the Holy Spirit. Zwingli is not referring to the Glory of the Son of God, but to the Glory of Christ, Head of the Church, the Church of which he adjures, and denying God he affirms that all men, following the insanity of Luther and his disciples, all men are priests.

Excuse me, I am tasking to you reading these lines: do you believe that all Israelites were priests?

The Old Temple of Jerusalem gave place to a New one, which came down from Heaven. Christ is this Temple. The New one continues to receive the Name of the Old one, “the Jerusalem that came down from Heaven” because that Old one was the Prototype of the New one.

The Old Temple of Jerusalem was the Heart and Soul of a Religion. God shaped it so that the Prototype would be the Original in whose Image the New would rise.

And so it was done. The Aaronite Service passed and gave its place to the Catholic Priesthood, that is to say, the Roman Catholic. For we know that the Aaronite priesthood was limited to the people of Israel; but the Christian refers to the Universe of the nations, both of this world and of the world from which the Son of God descended, and hence, having made known the Gospel to the sons of God on Earth, He ascended to His World to preach it to the sons of God in Heaven, in His Words: “I have other Flock that must come to Me”.

Continuing with the thread, in the Old Temple the High Pontificate passed from father to son. In the New Priesthood God establishes an Eternal High Priest, who does not pass on but becomes Universal High Priest, Head of all Christian Priests, all servants of God, a Holy Body at the Service of the New Temple, a Living Temple, Eternal, in which God is worshipped and before which only the Divine High Priest can stand before His Presence.

It is this New Temple of which Christ Jesus is the Head of all the priests that succeed the Aaronite priesthood by Divine Will: and this Temple is the one that the Evil Sower set out to tear down. And he hired “the sons of perdition” so that attacking his Building from different points, they would tear down its walls, open doors through which to enter and put an end to the Christ Jesus’s Wife.

The Body dead, the Head finished.

With the Body dead, Christ would be powerless to continue working in the world. In the words of this disciple of the son of perdition: God would be a dead body, incapable of undertaking anything. Which is precisely what the “Hidden God” of the Reformation was looking for, Satan, master and lord of the German, as much of the Swiss as of the German, of the English as of his other brothers in arms in the Antichrist.

The insanity consists in challenging God. To challenge God was the undoing of him who was once called the son of God, by name Satan.

CHAPTER TWO

It is proper for serpents to spit venom. It is not in vain that God called him Serpent whom until then he called son, and whom we see later, even having released his venom, present himself before God as if nothing had happened.

The wise men of all times in their ignorance took the word of Scripture literally and where God called Satan "Serpent" they saw "a snake". And even when it is demonstrated by the millennia lived that the beasts do not speak, the wise men of all times to save their ignorance affirmed that everything was a lie, that there never existed a place called Eden... neither God exists... nor the Devil exists.

But the sons of God know that the natural condition of the chosen ones according to the world is to put on that mask of the Devil who hid his true face to present himself as an angel who comes in the name of God. Following this evil policy, the apostles of the Gospel of Hate are unable to see their true face in the Mirror of the Son of God, which the Devil hid behind the mask of wisdom under which he "concealed" their ignorance of these chosen ones of the Evil Sower to carry out his Sowing of the Division of the churches, the road to lead the nations into the World Wars of Gog and Magog; they recognized no Truth but their own, and by it vowed to set the world on fire, following in all things the example of Satan, "their master, king and lord."

Zwingli was another among the many who by their conduct were the antithesis of Christ. Where Christ laid down His life rather than take that of His enemies, they stepped over the corpse of His critics; where Christ laid down Mercy for the sinner, they laid down the penalty of death for all sinners.... And it is enough: "By their works ye shall know them". And by their works I say that they were members of Antichrist, their Lord and Master. And in obedience to his Master this servant of the Evil Sower wrote the following:

8.-From this it follows: First: All who live in Christ as head are his members and sons of God, that is, the Church or communion of saints, the bride of Christ, the "Ecclesia Catholica", that is, universal.

The Doctrine of God is this: His Son is the Head of all the Powers of His Kingdom. Jesus Christ is the Head of the armies of YAHWEH GOD, HIS FATHER; Jesus Christ is the Head of the Court of Justice of God; Jesus Christ is the Head of the Priesthood of the Universal Temple in which God is worshipped. Jesus Christ is King, Judge and Lord. Some are priests, others are soldiers, others are ministers, but we all o are Citizens of His Kingdom. So where does this poison come from whereby every man is a god, at once soldier, minister, priest and citizen of his Kingdom? Is every man king, lord and high priest of the House of God? Is this what it means to be a son of God?

You foolish, wise men of infinite ignorance whom your Lord and Master HAS DRESSED YOU AS MESENGERS OF GOD, that very thing you say you are is what Satan asked for, and God denied him, and in rebellion, Satan, the Evil Serpent, declared war on his Kingdom.

In whose head is it possible that YAHWEH GOD, THE FATHER, Creator of the COSMOS, whose Perfection surpasses the imagination and science of every man, could conceive a Social Building on the basis of an Individual who is at the same time king, judge, priest, minister, pastor, and citizen? Have you lost your minds? Is it worth discussing such a thesis?

If we were among that mass of brute beasts that filled the Swiss Alps in the sixteenth century, certainly the death penalty would be our condemnation. It is the Devil's payment against his enemies. Which we would gladly pay, for the glory of the saints is Paradise; but the Devil's payment to his servants is Hell. So if there is still any madman who thinks he is king, lord, judge, priest, minister, and citizen, that is, a clone of the Son of God in person, let him step forward.

To discuss this thesis is to talk to an insane person. Let us continue analyzing his insanity:

9.- Second: Just as the bodily members can do nothing if they are not governed by the head, so no one can do anything if he is in the body of Christ without his head, who is Christ.

Indeed, this is why the Destruction of the Church, of the Catholic Priesthood, of the Body of Christ: it was the priority of the Devil, by killing the Body he made of its Head, God the Only Begotten Son, a Power without force on Earth.

And those sent from Hell fulfilled their work to perfection in the service of the Evil Sower, their Master.

If they did not achieve their goal, it was not because of the will of the slaves of the Serpent, through whose mouths the Poison of War spread in abundance throughout Europe, driven like a beast to the Fratricidal Thirty Years War.

Fools of infinite wisdom, what will be upon you the Judgment of the Almighty and Omniscient Jesus Christ on the Day of your Judgment?

You foolish envoys of the Devil who passed yourselves off as Messengers of the Lord Jesus Christ, that Enemy whom you pretended to destroy by destroying his Body on Earth, let me tell you: wanting to save the Honor of Christ, you behaved like the madman who to end his headache decapitates himself.

I say that you will tremble with fear when the Lord whose Wife you sought to destroy, and whose people you led into Civil War, awakens you from the dead and calls you to answer for your service to the Devil.

And woe to you all who welcomed into your villages the Venom of the Serpent as Honey come down from Heaven. If your descendants still have an ounce of intelligence left, they will tear you from the list of their ancestors.

But the crime of the servants of the Evil Sower, considering the Body as dead, detached from the Head, was consummated when in their madness they thought of creating a new body to the measure of each one, of which they would be the head.... And their head would be Christ, thus elevating themselves to the condition of the gods in the way that the Serpent said to Adam: "You will be like the gods".

Adam wept in cries, that went up to Heaven, when he understood the Deception and Betrayal to which he was subjected. These servants of the Devil did not weep but danced the dance of Hell over the millions of corpses of Christians over which bodies were built, and over which they would be their heads ... and their heads would be Christ, and the Head of Christ is God.... Ergo, they were gods and as such had in their hands the Power of Life and Death. And in exercise of this divinity attained in life, this servant of Satan spoke as follows.

10.-If men already act foolishly when their members act without counting on the head and consequently wound each other and are harmed, equally the members of Christ act foolishly if they try to undertake something without their head: Christ. What they do is to injure themselves and overburden themselves with unwise laws.

Who is this who subjects the conduct of Him who is God, the SON, to the conduct of beings who are but a lump of clay whose existence depends on the Word of God?

Who is this fool who speaks of God as if He were a mere mortal who can be chained and brought to his knees?

Instead of following the example of the Christ of whom he speaks, instead of crying VADE RETRO SATAN, this fool, like Luther, like Henry VIII, like Calvin, got down on his knees at the price of being god for a day. In his vanity exempt from the power of the head, he wrote:

11.-From this it proceeds that we see how the precepts promulgated by people whom we call "clergymen," concerning their pomp, their riches, their rank, their titles and laws are the cause of all folly; for they do not agree with the head.

Truly of the serpent is the poison.

CHAPTER THREE

It is not a phenomenon of today that the Force of Public Opinion exerts a decisive influence on the behavior of individuals, nations and the world. Throughout the centuries of Modern Europe, the Force of Public Opinion has been such an important reality that it has even become a determining factor in our days.

Some time ago it would have been difficult to discover the source from which this phenomenon, today the best ally of Private and Public Powers, began to emerge.

The study of the psychology of peoples leads us to believe that Public Opinion as a Force at the service of Individuals and States is a peculiar product inherent to the nature of the genesis of Society. The created social system has always been based on an immediate explanatory expression of the internal movements and expectations that our intelligence raises as a result of our understanding of the nature of Time.

We may believe, and we would not be wrong, that Public Opinion sprang from anti-social sources linked to the hidden interests of Individuals and Groups in charge of the Administration of the Powers of the State. In order to identify their Government with the State Created by all and to link the Future of Society to the future of the relationship with the Power entrusted to them for its Administration, the Political Parties and Private Organizations on which those bodies are sustained, in defense of their status quo, feed and sow ideas that take hold of hearts, cloud thinking, enslave spirits and transform them into anonymous means over whose heads to achieve those private ends that the Administrators write to be their history, their epic, their odyssey, their epic.

Once the seed of Public Opinion is created, its properties and characteristics are exclusively related to its creators, who, making use of the Powers of the State, expand its creation until it reaches larger and larger circles. The magnificence of its strength will be measured by its victory over the opposition that Public Opinion will have to overcome until it drags the masses to the point of kneeling before the Artificial Image over the reality created for the benefit of its authors. The reality of the image they inject in the people does not need to have a concordance with the Reality hidden from our eyes by those who gave it shape in order to achieve by all means the end they seek. Once the bomb is unleashed, its Force spreads over infinite circles until it molds behavior in a planned and exponentially remote-controlled manner until the desired end is reached.

Although Power is enriched as it grows and is constantly nourished by the experience of ever freer and stronger minds, which, while permeable to the bombardment of the transformations of the times, the existence of independent spirits allows Society to count on men who not only do not allow themselves to be influenced by these bombs without a natural nucleus, but also by the very strength of their own intelligences react against them with invincible energy. Thanks to their battle against the private interests of those groups of Power that make of the States levers at their service to reach the Olympus of their egocentric utopias, Civilization moves on a field of action in incessant metamorphosis. Thanks to them, what was originally created and launched to mold the behavior of peoples and nations aborts as doctrine to become bubbles without historical consistency.

Opinion being the reason of the ignorant, the phenomenon of its manipulation, instead of fighting it and elevating reason to the stage of Intelligence, cannot and does not cease to be a crime of the Private and Public Powers against the Future of Civilization and the Welfare of Society.

Obviously the Strength of Society to face the drift of Civilization in the hands of Power Groups stationed in egos alien to Universal Time has been growing as that Power has been growing. The History of Civilization is an open book from which to learn how this Phenomenon we call Public Opinion has been forming. But it is in the sixteenth century, with the help of the Printing Press, fresh from the forge of Prometheus, that we can most powerfully and clearly detect the influence and use of this Force.

It is unnecessary to affirm that the Printing Press was the Engine without which what could have remained the tantrum of a frustrated lawyer turned into a real Mass Rebellion. And although personally I doubt very much of the Opinion of the Universities on having been the Lutheran rebellion the Beginning of the Modern Age, that, pricking that bubble must be seen and I see in the Discovery of America, it does not stop being certain that the Modern Age, centered in the New World, by alienating from European events the Fullness of Force of the most powerful Army and State of the moment, the Spanish State and Army, made possible the impossible, that an isolated rebellion became a tidal wave of colossal fratricidal proportions.

The Discovery of the Printing Press at the service of European Public Opinion, and the Discovery of the Americas at the service of Civilization, depriving Europe of the best theologians and captains of the moment, were the arms that opened the doors to a Europe without a Divine Nucleus.

Now, whoever imposes his idea, be it by hook or by crook, is the one who writes the History of the events lived. And so it was that a Public Opinion based on a bloody reaction against the Vatican Curia unleashed a greater Evil than the Evil it sought to cure.

But regardless of these natural forces, the historians of the Reformation closed their eyes to the Great Truth at stake. The Protestant Reformation had as its existential objective the Rupture and Destruction of a Civilization founded on the Universal Religion that for fifteen centuries molded the thinking of the European nations. This and no other was the end towards which the Protestant Rebellion of the 16th century was set in motion.

And in closing their eyes to the Great Truth, that the Movement, directed towards the Fratricidal War of the 30 Years, had Christianity as its Castle to overthrow, the historians, both Catholic and of the churches born of that Rebellion against the Catholic-European Civilization, forget a fundamental detail, of the first order: Christianity was founded by God and his Son, so the question is of Necessity: How could one or the other alienate God from the struggle? How could a History of the 16th Century have been written without beginning its Journey with the Presence of the God Creator of Christian Civilization, and treating the events as if the Son of God were dead and his Resurrection had been just that, a legend?

Ergo, assuming as Reality the History of the Human Race as a Chapter in the History of the Creation of the Universe, and the Foundation of Christianity and the Church as a Chapter in the History of the Life of the Son of God, under what assumptions can one penetrate into the mystery of the Origin of the Reformation by alienating from its sources the existence of the Enemy of God and His Kingdom?

After the Resurrection, did the Enemy against whom these words were written cease to exist? VADE RETRO SATAN".

Inferring: Did the Son of God lie in his Final Revelation, that little apocalyptic book with which God closed his Book, prophesying the Liberation of that Satan in the form of the Evil Sower?

Did YAVE GOD lie in his Son prophesying the Evil Sower?

Remember that "the spirit of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy..."?

... And after Him the world has known no other prophet.

Prophecy is an Attribute of the Being of God. No prophet ever spoke in his own name. To speak in one's own name would have been an evil schizophrenic egolatrizing action. The Prophet was and is YAHWEH GOD. HE was the Lord of the Prophets. Either because being Almighty and Omnipotent he can announce the future in the present, or because being Omniscient and infinitely Wise he knows the effects in the future of the present causes, there is no Prophet outside YAHWEH GOD, THE FATHER. Prophecy is an Attribute of His Spirit. Hence, when with all Naturalness the Servant of God writes: "The spirit of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy", he is not speaking of a prophet by commission, but of a Prophet by Spirit, that is to say, of the very Nature of YAHWEH GOD, HIS FATHER.

With "JESUS" the Prophets passed into History.

It will not be prophecy that will distinguish the New Religion; it will be the spirit of Intelligence, which immediately begins to manifest itself and attains its natural Christian status in St. Augustine. The property, the attribute that will be the essence and substance of Christianity will be the spirit of intelligence. It is not in vain that all sciences and arts, law and jurisprudence found in the Christian Civilization a very fertile field, to the point that we can say, without any kind of complex, that without Christianity the world would not have overcome the Fall and Destruction of the Roman Civilization.

Without the Church the Journey of Civilization from Egypt, Sumer, Babylon and Israel to the European Renaissance would never have taken place.

Without Christianity that Relay Race in which the Roman Republic picked up from Greek Democracy the Witness of Civilization, without the Intervention of the Catholic Church in the History of the World Civilization would never have overcome the Fall of the Empire. Humanity would have been definitively buried under the skin of a suicidal beast that would not stop killing until it devoured itself.

It is therefore a surprising phenomenon that the actors of the religious events of the sixteenth century and their historians, both of one side or the other, left aside, alienated from the struggle what makes Christianity the Only True Religion of the Universe: The Presence of Jesus Christ at the Right Hand of YAHWEH GOD, HIS FATHER, and of HIS Empire over the development of the events that the Devil, the Enemy of Man and of Christ, was directing towards the end in his head forged : The destruction of the House that the Son of God founded on Earth and his Brothers in the Spirit built... I speak of the Catholic Church.

Church against which Ulrich Zwingli rose up, and addressing his countrymen with the same cunning as that Serpent who approached Eve claiming to come in the name of God, curiously came to destroy what God created.

For it was in the minds of those envoys of the Enemy of Christ that God had decreed the destruction of the House founded by the Son of His uncreated womb, and He chose these new apostles to build Him a house according to their minds and nations, who declared false the Gospel of the Holy Spirit, according to which the Catholic Church is the Bride of the Lord Jesus, that same Jesus of whom we read that His Spirit is the Spirit of Prophecy, so that there is no Prophet after Him, and being the Son of God by His Word the Future becomes Present. Hence when it is said, "God said," it is immediately written, "and so it was done," regardless of the journey from Word to Consummated Action. And this is where Faith is: NOT in the Knowledge of how things are done, but in the almighty Belief that the Word of God is Law for Space, Time and Matter, how much more for created life!

The Knowledge that leads to Eternal Life is the perfect Knowledge of the Son of God. Who became flesh so that the Gospel would not be a religious-philosophical doctrine but a living contemplation of its foundations. This is the Gospel of the Holy Spirit that the Testator bequeathed to his Bride and without whose signature there can be no other, nor was there, nor will there be.

Skipping this Knowledge both Luther and Zwingli and Calvin brought other gospels into what they became the head of their churches, and whoever had his own, that is, did not think as they did, were ipso facto condemned to death.

The intelligence of the European nations in that century was not exactly very high. The Renaissance was a typical Latin movement that did not reach Germany. Had history followed its natural course, it would also have arrived. The hatred against the Catholic Civilization exorcised that influence.

The Printing Press in the service of the Reformation, by reason of the illiteracy and ignorance of the masses, made the gospel of Protestant Hatred the creative force of a Public Opinion starkly exposed to the hoaxes against the Gospel of the Catholic Spirit; force and opinion which served Luther and his fellow servants as a Trojan horse.

Continuing with his attack of Separation of Christ Jesus from His Church, having seen in the previous theses that the end sought by the Reformers was none other than to create a church of their own on which to erect their own heads, a dream that Henry VIII realized, Zwingli continued to write:

12.-Therefore they act foolishly, though not because of the head (efforts are already made, through divine grace, to restore the value of the head), but we say of foolish acting because we are no longer willing to endure it, but wish to listen only to what the head says. (Speaking of the precepts promulgated by people we call "clerics," concerning their pomp, their riches, their rank, their titles and laws, the cause of all foolishness).

The egolatriy exposed in this thesis by the Swiss is not to be missed. The hidden subliminal intention that he discovers is no less so.

Zwingli only wants to listen to what the head tells him, but not that Head of the priest, which he was, priest, and which is Christ Jesus; Zwingli only listened to what his own head told him because he took for granted that his Head was Christ, and in short he was Christ; and being his head that of Christ, everyone should listen to him, because as Christ was, he was also in direct communication with God. We do not know which line, but it is understood that Zwingli only wanted to listen to what his head had to tell him because his head was Christ, and Christ told him that he had to destroy the Catholic Church and condemn to death all Catholics... if they did not kneel before him. At the end of his thesis, as we shall see, the "divine Swiss Christ" reduces the death penalty to the condemnation of Catholics to the condition of abandoned dogs in the streets... in an exercise of Christian charity towards these non-recyclable heretics.

From where it is seen that the Swiss Evil Sower assumed either that his head was that of a god, ergo: infallible and omniscient, or that someone spoke to his head and he listened and followed the word of the Voice that entered him through that head. In his opinion, the foolish actions of the Curia came from not listening to the voice of the one who spoke to his head and told him what he should do. That Voice was the only one he wanted to listen to, and since he was the messenger of that "Hidden Voice" that spoke to no one else but him, everyone had to listen to him in order to act righteously. Because:

13.-Hearing it, one learns to know the will of God in a clear and precise way, and thanks to the Spirit of God man is drawn to God and transformed into HIM.

Let us note that it does not say "by reading it". Zwingli insists: "hearing it".

Hearing the Voice that spoke to his head, Zwingli felt himself in direct and living communication with God, who made known to him His will, which was to destroy the Catholic Faith and that Gospel of the Roman Church that for 16 centuries, beginning its Journey from and through Jesus Christ Himself, had spread through all the nations of the Old World and in those days was setting its feet in the New.

The feet of the Church are the feet of Jesus Christ, and in that Century it finally placed them in the New World, from whose soles the churches of Latin America were born. Were those Reformers blind, or did they not want to see the Miracle of the Discovery of the New World?

But what gospel were those servants of the Enemy of Christ talking about? Did they really believe that while the Lord was making the New World his own, God was handing over to his destruction the World that he had worked so hard to raise from the ruins of the Roman Empire?

The Voice that spoke directly to the Reformers and Divines and put them in direct communication with that "Hidden God" from whom they received their Order: to destroy the House of Christ on Earth, was it not the Voice of that Serpent who with his poison convinced Eve to opt for War once she had enjoyed Love?

14.-For this reason all Christians should pay the utmost attention that only the Gospel be preached in the whole world.

In the Gospel it is written that the Church built by the Holy Spirit of the Apostles is the Bride of the Lord, that Jesus whose Spirit is said to be the Spirit of Prophecy. and God closing his Book. once revealed that the Son of God is True God of True God: the Age of the Prophets was closed. Never again would the World know another Prophet.

This is the Gospel of the Apostles which the Church inherited. And it lived in the true knowledge that the Miracles and the Prophets belonged to the Bible. Henceforth it was the spirit of intelligence in Man that was to fight for Civilization and the salvation of the human race. A struggle that would not be exempt of tensions and revolutions, which were already manifested in the Age of the Apostles. St. Peter was the first to manifest it when he wrote "your proven Faith, more precious than gold, which is corrupted even though it is purified by fire". Corruption of which the History of the Churches marvels at its continuity "for the praise, glory and honor of Jesus Christ", its Founder, the same one who, opening his Foundation, prophesied that his House would be exposed to the test of tidal waves, earthquakes, storms, floods and all kinds of tragedies, in whose Victory his glory and honor would be celebrated in praise.

Did not those who had, like the Swiss, direct communication with God, know this?

Declaring themselves Infallible and Omniscient, for if their Head was Christ and Christ is God, being His body, they participated in His Infallibility and Omniscience, according to logic, did they not know how to read with "Lutheran clear reason" what had been made known by God the Father to His Son? and to the Listeners it became a Prophecy, namely, that His Church, His House on Earth, the one He would build, would be exposed to all kinds of enemies who would rise to the death to tear down its walls, plunder its treasures and reduce to rubble the Building of the New Temple?

The History of Christianity, of Christian Civilization, of Europe and of the World was written. The Memory of the 16 centuries since the Incarnation and the Resurrection up to the days of the Evil Sowing was recorded and open for reading in all European universities. It was enough to open those books to see in what way and in what form the House founded by Jesus Christ had been exposed until then to deadly attacks of necessity. All the students of Theology at the time were aware of the History of the Church and of European Civilization from the Century of Christ to the Century of the Catholic Kings. To believe that what the Roman Empire and the Muslim Empire did not achieve for centuries could be achieved by the League of Protestant Nations could only be in the Devil's head. Obviously of necessity the Prince of Death had to do what came naturally to him, destroy the House of his Enemy, Jesus Christ. His Dementia had no cure. He believed he could bring God to his knees over the corpse of his son Adam, then he believed he could bring his Son to his knees before the kingdoms of this world, and he still believed he could destroy the House of God on Earth by the Fratricidal Division of the European nations through the Reformation. All natural in one who, of his own free will, had chosen to be a prince in Hell rather than a Citizen in the Kingdom of God, and refused, as all the sons of God did, to lay his crown at the feet of the throne of God, abdicating in Honor of the Glory of the Only Begotten and Firstborn Son of YAHWEH GOD, FATHER of Our King Jesus Christ; but absolutely unnatural in those who being sons of men and women made it the aim of their existences to destroy the indestructible: The House that the Son of God built for His Father on Earth. This insanity, to believe that they could challenge God and his Son, was what Luther's "Hidden God" communicated to his "apostles of the Hate to Death". Contagious insanity that spread throughout the European nations. The Seed bore its fruit, and produced the 30 Years' War, an incurable wound that, always open, would end up leading the nations to the Absolute World War, from which the Prince of Hell hoped to obtain the destruction of the Human Race.

The "Hidden God" needed to keep his true nature hidden from the eyes of his servants. Blinded by the glory of those who would defeat the Son of God by destroying what He created, they went ahead without stopping to understand that Cain was the Model Christian they were implementing as they displaced Christ more and more from the consciousness of Europe.

Seeking the salvation of a few, that of God's Chosen Ones for Heaven, predestined FROM BEFORE ETERNITY FOR ETERNAL LIFE in Paradise, they worked for the destruction of many.

15. For our salvation consists in believing the Gospel, and, on the contrary, our condemnation consists in unbelief. For the Gospel clearly contains all truth.

And the Truth, the whole Truth and nothing but the Truth is this: That the Lord, Christ Jesus, is the Bridegroom of the Catholic Church. And he who rises up against the Bride rises up against her Bridegroom.

Is it not written, or could it be that the Swiss could not read? For it is written: "Where there is a Will, the death of the Testator is necessary". Hence the following question: Who has neither Wife nor Children nor relatives to whom to leave Inheritance, which Will should he sign?

Therefore, if there is a Will and there is Death of the Testator, there is a Wife and Descendants. The first in the way that Christ was in Eve, and the second in the way that Isaac was in Sarah.

Of the former God said, “The gates of Hell shall not prevail against her,” and of the latter, “The gates of her enemies shall be taken possession of”.

The one who testifies is God, and as from the Beginning there is the End, the Wife as the Offspring were in the Present in the Being of the Bridegroom although in the Time it was Future.

To destroy the Mother in the Wife was to destroy her Offspring. The fire of the Voice of the “Hidden God” that spoke to the Reformers in their heads had this destiny: By killing the Wife the Devil would kill in the entrails of that Offspring born to conquer all his enemies, and whose Birth “the whole creation awaited expectantly.”

Far were the Reformers from this Gospel of the Holy Spirit “spoken privately among the perfect”.

16a.-In the Gospel and from the Gospel one learns that human doctrines and precepts do not help at all for salvation.

Against this Voice of the “Hidden God” of the Reformers it is enough to bring to the front the Voice of the Visible God, when He said and says: “If you did not see the Works that I do in the name of my Father you would not believe”.

Do you see in what way works are necessary for the Salvation of souls?

Christ did not come to save Himself, but to save others. A Christian is he who follows his Example and according to his Gospel performs works in the Image and likeness of those of the Son of Man for the salvation of the souls of those who have not known him, and of those who do not yet believe. Whoever denies the value of the works performed in Christ for the salvation of mankind denies God, rejects Christ and becomes an Antichrist.

Christ did not need any work to be saved. The Christian does not need his own works to be saved, he has been saved by the works of Jesus Christ. Being His projection in the flesh, the Christian lives according to the same Principle of salvation by the works performed by the Son of God in Man. This is the Gospel of the Holy Spirit. It is the Gospel of the Church from her Birth. And it will be her Gospel for eternity.

Having said this: How could the Letter of James the Apostle sound like the Word of God to the antichrist? “Faith without the works of Christ is dead faith”.

What are these works if not? : “Feed the hungry, clothe the naked, care for the sick, help the orphans and widows, do not kill, do not commit adultery, do not envy, do not judge your neighbor, forgive, love your enemies, do not steal, do not testify falsely, love peace and justice, be merciful, love God above all things and your neighbor as yourself, honor your father and mother, keep Sunday holy, love your brethren, lead your children to the Faith...”

This is the Gospel of the Church, inherited from her Spouse and defended and spread throughout the four regions of the Earth. Each one is accountable for his works.

If by them souls are lost, they will be judged for that crime, whether they are popes, cardinals or bishops.

If by your works you save the soul of your neighbor, by his soul you will be honored and praised before God.

And if by the salvation of one soul the many sins of one man are blotted out, so it is written, and according to this Word we shall be judged all men, Servants as the people of God, the reality is obvious: By the condemnation of your neighbor because of your works, thoughts and words you shall be condemned. The sentence against those who lose others and believe themselves shielded by Faith is written: "Depart from me, you workers of iniquity". Let every man therefore judge himself before he is raised from the dead.

And blessed is he to whom the Lord imputes no guilt.

CHAPTER FOUR

Zwingli dixit:

16b.- it is the civil authorities and not the bishop who must hold the power even in spiritual matters; and the Bible, and the Bible alone, must set the pattern for the reorganization of all civic life.

After reading this lapidary program against Social Freedom, the Growth of Civilization and the right of the Creator to direct His Creation in Time according to His Wisdom and Love for the Life He Himself creates, all that remains is to burn the 67 Theses of this insane author who wanted to enclose Humanity within the pages of a Book whose Sacred End is to raise Man's head, to direct him to his Creator, and there the Bible fulfills and consummates its Divine function.

Once the Creator and his Creation are united by the Love for the Life of both, the Bible reaches its Glory, its Wonder, its Divinity. For it is not only God who loves the Life of Man, but Man who loves the Life of God. The Love of the Creator to his Creation and of the Creation to its Creator is a Living Force of eternal and infinite Power. He who loves the Creator and hates his Creation is an enemy of both. A person who pretends to erect an impassable Wall between Creator and Creation, making of the Bible that Wall, that man does not come from God, nor speaks in the name of our Creator, that man is a poor devil who somewhere in his existential journey lost his papers and to compensate for it claimed Absolute Power, asking for himself that Power that corresponds to the Church in the field of the Spirit.

“To the civil authorities, he says, corresponds the Authority over the Spirit”. This poor devil, aware that he could never hold that Spiritual Power that belongs to Christ and only to Christ, Jesus being his Head and the Catholic Church his Body, wants to take that Power by means of a religious coup d'état against the Civil Authority. And once he has risen in it, he wants to claim the Authority of Christ to condemn to death from the Power of the sword anyone who opposes his Theocracy.

This is the Reading of the Program of the Swiss Reformer. There is no other. He says it letter by letter, his Intention was to be a god, and knower of good and evil, to be equal to the gods that the Serpent wanted Adam to be, speaking to Eve.

The Swiss does not cut a hair, but what he admires most is to see the brutality of his Alpine countrymen, who, having this anti-Christian program before their eyes, went over to his side and gave themselves up to civil war, emulating Cain.

It is understood that to achieve this power, to be a god, the Swiss would have to launch a frontal attack against the one who received from God the Authority in the religious field within the Christian world. His following thesis confirms it:

17.-Christ is the eternal and only High Priest. From this we conclude that those who have proclaimed themselves "High Priests" not only oppose the glory and power of Christ, but even reject Him.

If the High Priesthood, its existential property, as seen in the Temple of the Biblical Jerusalem, is based on being the only priest who approaches God, to whom else could this Eternal High Priesthood correspond but to the one who is in God, his Beloved Son?

By Divine Nature Jesus Christ is, in this order, Eternal High Priest. But men, we believe, perhaps Protestants are not, are mortal. Not that our spirit can die, for having been Created in the Image and Likeness of the Son of God we participate in His Immortality through Eternal Life. Had Aaron been of the same Divine Nature as Jesus Christ the high priesthood would have been his forever. But, Religion being a perpetual Worship of God, to a dead high priest, a high priest put by the Temple. Or else the Perpetual Worship of Creation to its Creator would be liquidated, and the people would sink into the condition of the beasts. With the transfer of the Temple from Jerusalem to Rome the Sacred Nature of Religion remains, and Perpetual Worship, by the Nature of the Supreme Pontiff, Jesus Christ, acquires the property of eternal Life.

This Succession from Jesus to St. Peter and from St. Peter to the Bishop of Rome does not annul or rob the Son of God of his Nature of Eternal Supreme Pontiff, for this would be to affirm that the Son of God could no longer appear before his Father, a satanic argument on which I will not even dwell. Christ Jesus being the Supreme Pontiff of the New Temple, his Divine Nature opens to the Universal Christian Priesthood, so that all the Bishops, both the Bishop of Rome and his brothers in the Temple, are part of his Body, and because of the Visibility of this Universal Nature of his Eternal High Pontificate, the Son of God raises Peter as Successor in the Office of "High Priest" that Aaron held before Israel so that the Renewal of the Human Race may be Visible before the nations of Earth and Heaven by the Redemption of Christ.

Zwingli spoke a lie because he came from the father of all lies to speak in his name and destroying the Succession attacking the Temple of God by leaving it without High Priest of the Perpetual Worship of the Son of God. For indeed, Aaron stood before God in person, but St. Peter his Successor in the Worship of God stands before the Son of God, whence it is seen that the Glory of Jesus Christ is not only not diminished but exalted before all Creation. Therefore all the Powers of Heaven, as we see in the Epilogue of the Book of God, the Bible, proclaim the Glory of the Lamb of God, that is, of His Son.

When the Swiss says that they cast away the glory of Christ who are called "high priests" by the Powers of the Church, the Swiss spoke a lie, he was lying, and he spoke a lie because his source was the father of all lies.

St. Peter and his successors (High Priests) answer to Jesus Christ (Eternal Universal High Priest), and none but Jesus Christ stands before YAHWEH GOD, THEIR FATHER.

The Adoration of the Son by the Father becomes in the Catholic Temple: Adoration of the Son and the Father. As Jesus Christ loves God with the Love of a Son, the Church loves Jesus Christ with the Love of a Wife, thus Love is the Almighty and Eternal Bond that engenders the Mystery of the Trinity, where the Father is YAHWEH GOD, Lord of the Prophets of Israel, the SON is JESUS, Lord of the Church, and the SAINT SPIRIT is CHRIST, whose Body is the Church. And JESUS and CHRIST being the same Person, whom we all know as God the Only Begotten Son, the Catholic Priesthood rises in Eternity for the Perpetual Adoration of the Son of God, for “he who does not adore the Son does not adore the Father who sent him”.

A lie cannot stand if it is not supported by other lies. The following demonstrates it:

18.-Christ sacrificed himself once and his sacrifice is eternally valid as acting and expiatory and happened for the sins of all believers. This allows us to recognize that the Mass itself is no sacrifice, but a memorial of the sacrifice and, at the same time, the confirmation of the redemption that Christ has accomplished for our good.

Christ was sacrificed by God, He was his Atoning Lamb: and was offered for the sins of the World committed in the Ignorance of the Intimate Nature of the Events prior to the Creation of our Universe that triggered, through Satan’s Treachery, the Fall of the First Man.

Can a Lamb sacrifice itself, and does it not correspond to its Lord and Owner to perform that Sacrifice?

Evidently, being a Spiritual Lamb, Jesus could have refused to be that Lamb offered by God in atonement for the sins of the World committed in Ignorance. That he had this Power of Free Will we see in the Garden of Gethsemane, where Jesus opens his Heart and asks his Father if he could pass from that Cup, to allow him to do so. But in his Eternal Adoration of God he bows before his Father and offers his Blood so that by his Blood the Redemption of Adam's Transgression, committed in his Ignorance, may be consummated, for if there had been no Ignorance, the Holy Spirit would not speak of Transgression but of Treason in the manner of Satan.

Christ did not offer his Blood for the believers and only and only FOR THE BELIEVERS. This is “casting away the Glory of Jesus Christ”. God offered his Lamb for the sins of the whole world, for all men were locked in Sin by Ignorance, and by reason of this Ignorance all are redeemed.

So the Swiss author lies when he affirms that God sacrificed His Lamb for the sake of believers. This lie Disallows the Universal Power of the Redemption of God, who comprehended in His Glory the whole world. The Holy Spirit states it in the open: "God so loved the world that He gave His Beloved Son that it might be saved". The Saint Spirit does not lie. The Reformer does lie when he affirms that the redemption by the Blood of the Lamb of God was poured out exclusively for the health of the Protestant elect. In saying this, the Reformer despises God, dismisses the Glory of his Son and attacks the Holy Spirit head-on.

But quickly the serpent hidden in the Reformer puts on his mask, and says:

19.-Christ is the only Mediator between God and us.

Hallelujah! Europe was discovering the Americas, the Fourth of the New Apostles in charge of sowing the new gospel was discovering the philosopher's stone that would allow his "Hidden God" to destroy the House that Jesus Christ and his Brothers built.

Pride, says God, is the beginning of sin. The Reformers were gods and presented themselves before God without asking permission or knocking at the door. According to their doctrine Christ is one Person and Jesus is another. Christ is not Jesus, they say. Christ is not God, they say. So, not being Jesus the Christ, they did not need Jesus to reach God. Thus, affirming Christ, they deny Jesus, whom they put out of the way on their way to God.

But by the Holy Spirit we know this:

The Son is God,
the Son is Jesus,
and Jesus is the Christ.
Christ is God.

In what argumentative insanity was this servant of the Evil Sower trapping the Swiss people? Does anyone believe that the Seed of the Evil Sower would be a grain of tares different from the Lie?

God established His High Priest, first Aaron, until Christ came, and then Jesus, to remain for Eternity in His Presence, and these apostles of the gospel of the Lie say that they do not need anyone to present themselves before God. What infernal pride, to have Satan's blood in their heart!

They pretend to present themselves before God as equals, to use Christ as the doorkeeper in charge of announcing their entrance in the Most Holy Sanctuary, in the Tabernacle of the Almighty Lord of Infinity and Eternity, Creator of the Cosmos and of all the Worlds that fill his Kingdom of Heaven. How can one be so brutish!

Finally:

20.-God wants to grant us all things in the name of Christ, and from this it follows that we do not need another Mediator in the Hereafter either.

Brutality is the brute's brutality. The Kingdom of God, says this brute, is not based on a Social Building whose Nucleus of Universal Power is the Crown of his Son. "Not at all," says this fourth apostle of the gospel of the Lie. The Swiss Believer and his Protestant colleagues will enter the Temple of the Most High before whose Presence the Cosmos itself bends its knees, and chatting with the very God the Only Begotten Son they will shake hands with the Creator of the Universe.

Dementia kept on calling names. On this occasion the name of Zwingli was given. And with this name he signs that "Christ does not live in Us", Christ is a Mediator in whose Name absolutely everything is granted to us. And if everything, let Jesus get out of the way, all to invade His City, and to take Him down from His Throne. There is no authority but that of the People.

Amen.

With his alleluia:

21. If here in this world we pray for one another, we do so trusting that through Christ alone all things will be granted to us.

Pray not for the enemies, (they are all predestined to the fire of hell), nor for sinners (they are sinners because they are sinners), nor for those who do not believe so that they may believe (they do not believe because God has so established it from eternity and you will not go against the decree of the Almighty); pray for one another, all saints, all wonderful, all gods.

"Ye hypocrites, except ye overcome the righteousness of the Pharisees ye shall not enter into the kingdom of God." The Blood of Christ was not shed for all men, only for you, the Believers, for before the Sinner of Adam existed, the Blood of the Lamb of God was already predisposed for you to cook in it the flesh of your enemies: those filthy papists!

22.-Christ is our righteousness and from this we conclude that our works, as long as they are good, that is, done in Christ, are good works; but they are not good works if we do them on our own.

Christ is your righteousness? did you sacrifice the Lamb of God? did you send him from Heaven so that in his Blood the love of God for the whole World might be manifested? And how is it that being you that God who is Love in you Love turned into Hate?

The History of the crimes of the Reformers is written. Who was the Original in whose image and likeness the Reformers committed their massacres, their genocides against the peasants, their crimes against their opponents? Was it Jesus Christ that Original? Or was it Satan, father of all lies and of the Homicides committed on Earth from the Fall to our days?

The hypocrisy of the Reformers was absolute. They claimed that their crimes and homicides were done in Christ. They claimed that Christ murdered His enemies, killed His opponents, shed blood in torrents, and, following His Example, they faithfully gave Him glory over the corpses of their papist enemies.

But in the following thesis hypocrisy becomes divine:

23.-Christ laid aside the profit and glories of this world, and from this we deduce that those who in the name of Christ treasure up riches, do Him great injury; for they invoke Him as a pretext for their avarice and arbitrariness.

Was he talking about Switzerland?

And to hypocrisy is added the most pathological imbecility when he writes:

24.- Since no Christian is obliged to do works not ordained by God... he can take at any time whatever food he pleases. And from this we deduce that the permission to taste cheese and butter is a papist deception.

I know not by what horn to seize this bull. If it had been Minotaur, it would have been worth the adventure. But it was a goat, the kind that gives cheese and butter. Even in the soup they saw the devil, but it wasn't the devil, it was the Pope.

What madness!

25.-The Christian does not depend on specific dates or places, but on the contrary. Consequently, those who point out dates and places deprive the Christian of his freedom.

So much stupidity can with me. Suffice it to each day his eagerness. The moral of this thesis: Everyone to work the seven days of the week, the 354 days of the year, and cursed is he who moves from his place and gives himself a pilgrimage to Santiago, to Jerusalem, to Rome, to China. And cursed is he who rests at Christmas, Easter, and religious holidays. All slaves, until death.

Alleluia.

CHAPTER FIVE

Thought is the source from which proceeds the energy that moves the lips to produce that which we call “the Word.” All mammals have mouths and throats, but the only mammal in which this Power, “the Word,” manifests itself is in the human being. I mean, the existence of the Word has not so much to do with the fact of having mouth and throat, but it has everything to do with the brain of the Mammal Sapiens, in which the vocal cords are developed with only one purpose, to give the Thought “power of manifestation”. This Power is “the Word”.

This “fact”: the Word as the Natural Power of the Human Being, was the True Discovery of the Classical Greek World. From Solon to Aristotle the Word underwent a marvelous evolution, unique in the History of the Ancient World, in which the Power of Thought became Reality and shaped the structure of Society and State. The basis of that Historical Act that set Civilization on its course towards the Birth of Christianity based its Power on what today we call Real Politik. Or what is the same, the Individual Thought and the Classical Social Body were not encased within the Walls of an Ideology. This Freedom allows thinkers to open horizons to their Thinking and between all of them to determine the direction of the events that we have to live and to put into action the events of our time.

The Greek World was a Society created by and for Philosopher Politicians. On the contrary, the Roman World based its Power not so much on Thought as on the Force of the Sword. Where the Greek World put the Thought the Roman World put the Sword, the Word had to serve the Sword.

Observing the evolution from Ancient Rome to the Republic we see that the Growth of the Roman State was based on the struggle for Law. All the revolutions of the Roman Medieval Age were based on the conquest of Equal Rights among the social classes. At the height of the Roman Imperial Age the Word was limited to serve the Imperium of the Sword.

With Christianity, Thought was reborn as the source of the Word because: “The Word is God”. God becomes the Source from which Thought proceeds. It will be said to me that this Renaissance was of necessity. Against the Sword unsheathed in the hand of Caesar, the Christian had to make the Word his “sword”.

This Revolution was the one activated by the Son of God. Man’s Power is not in the sword, it is in his Word. The Word is what defines Man. And this is why the Fathers of the Church and the Historians of Christianity saw in the Victory of the Classical Civilization the Preparation for the Advent of Christ.

Henceforth in the War between Paganism and Christianity the latter would oppose to the Force of the Sword the Power of the Word. The Fathers of the Catholic Church did not cease until Paganism fell at their feet, and God, as the Source of Human Thought, was recognized by Civilization as the Unique Source that opens to Man's Thought a limitless Horizon.

This was the Hope that animated the Christian spirit, and in St. Augustine found the most visible manifestation of Christian Thought, namely, to overcome without the sword all the ideological systems that under a religious mask pretended to chain the thought of men to the walls of their private interests. In literary terms, the Confessions and the City of God are better known than the writings of war against paganism on which this Column of the Christian Temple based its glory.

Then came the Invasions and the Fall of Civilization at the feet of Attila's horse. Civilization found its refuge in the arms of the Church. Law, Theology, the State, found in Her their Winter Cave where to pass the Long Night that was coming until its Renaissance. The advent of St. Thomas was the crowing of the Morning Rooster announcing the new Day. From the summits of Heaven, God had opened his Thought with the Force of a river that descending from high peaks when touching the valley majestically extends its flow, vivifying dry and wasteland fields. The Word and God became Man once and forever. It was necessary to continue drinking from that River of Life of the Divine Intelligence, because in its waters Thought has all Science and Wisdom.

This is the Christian Doctrine par excellence: "God is the Source, Principle and Origin of Christian Thought". "The Word and the Word alone is the essence and substance of the Human Being". "Recourse to the sword is an act of Denial of God, by which it is denied that Man was created in His Image and Likeness".

The question that here calls us to refute the theses of this apostle of the Gospel of the Lie, which Protestantism made its own, is the following: Which "God" was the Source of Protestant Thought?

From the very first moment the first of the Four Apostles of the Gospel of the Reformation revealed to the world that its Source was a Hidden God. Now, we see that God never hides Himself from Man but reveals Himself in the Fullness of His Love and Power to those who seek Him.

Who was this Hidden God of the Apostles of the Gospel of the Reformation? In which of the children of God, both Apostles and Fathers of the Church, do we read that God the Father is a Hidden God? In which of the children of God in whom the True Spirit of the Son of God lived do we read that they called the Sword to defeat the anti-Christianity in which Paganism was enclosed?

If God begets all his sons according to the Image and Likeness of his Only Begotten, how is it that the Apostles of the Gospel of the Catholic Church preferred to die rather than to kill, and instead the Apostles of the Gospel of the Reformation chose to kill rather than to die?

"By their works ye shall know them". And these refer to the Word. For if the Word is the mediate Manifestation of the Thought, the Works are the final result of its existence. So that he who does not live like Christ, is not of Christ, and he who kills, as the Devil killed Adam, is of Satan. In this there is no middle ground. Between dying or killing, the choice is that of Christ.

As I said before, the history of the homicides of the Apostles of the Gospel of the Reformation are written. We know that their disciples using the Universities tried to erase them and justify them in the identification of the Church with the Antichrist, the Babylon of the Apocalypse, etc., words very proper of the Evil Sower, source of unlimited Hatred from whose waters his servants drank as if it were milk. If it was necessary to set fire to the world, go ahead.

Going into the matter, we also note that all the Apostles of the Gospel of the Reformation were sons of the bourgeoisie of the time. Without being the elite of the Renaissance, which none of them knew, nor of Humanism, although Humanism praised them, the Four Apostles of the Evil Reformation fed on the most current intelligence of the moment, bread reserved for the powerful nascent bourgeois class. Fattened on that bread, they manipulated the illiterate masses of the time. The ignorance, in this case of the Alpine peoples, is revealed to us in their intellectual disability to analyze theses in which Zwingli deployed his Hatred against the Church founded by Christ, whose analysis would have allowed them to discover the identity of the Hidden God that both the Swiss and the German served.

It is rhetoric to accuse the enemy of the evils in which the accuser glories. The best defense has always been to counterattack by accusing the enemy of suffering the evils of which he is accused. Since no one better than the accused himself knows the intimacy of the evils of which he is accused, no one better than he to deploy those evils in all their virulence against the one who feels scandalized.

Zwingli, like Luther, made this rule his high altar. Let us read his Twenty-sixth Sacred Prayer:

26.- What displeases God most is hypocrisy. Therefore, everything that man does to appear to be better than others is pure hypocrisy and deserves to be questioned. This includes the habits or clothing, the signs (crosses, etc.) sewn to the garment, the tonsure, etc.

To be better than others is to be a hypocrite? Is the runner who runs, in any branch of science, arts, law, religion, to be the best before the courts of men and God, a hypocrite?

With these two questions it is not even worthwhile to continue commenting on the hypocrisy spread by Zwingli. But let us concede: what is Creation and Civilization if not a movement of constant improvement in Time and Space? To be better when what you see is bad or worse, is a Sacred Duty.

No one can be better than God but we all have a duty to be better than those who preceded us because they were all chained to Lies, Corruption and Ignorance. "To be better" in the field of Good is a Christian Duty. One must be a better Pope, a better Bishop, a better Believer, a better Thinker, a better Politician, a better Scientist, a better Defender of the rights of Man, of Life. Is this to be hypocritical?

Zwingli's hypocrite shields his hypocrisy behind the mask of vestments. We well know that we wish no one the fate of the Devil, but we cannot allow the Seed of the Apostles of the Gospel of the Reformation to remain active. This is the Day when the Prophecy will come alive: “The Lord will say to his servants: Gather the Tares and gather them into bundles to be burned”.

To be better “in the field of Good” is the Engine of Civilization. This Thesis not only goes against Christ and the Church but attacks Civilization itself. No less than the following anti-Christian proclamation:

27.- All Christians are brothers of Christ and brothers among themselves and none should consider themselves superior to others before God. This means that Religious Orders, sects and Christian revolutionary movements have no reason to exist.

This is a lie. The Gospel of the Saint Spirit is that all Christians are sons of God, from where the second part of the first sentence does not make sense, because God loves all his sons with the love of a Father. But God begot some of them to be the Brothers of Christ, (his Apostles) and seated them at his side as the Almighty Ministers of his Kingdom; to others he makes them priests and gives them the spirit of a Bride so that they may live eternally in the Worship of God, to others he makes them sons of the King to work in his House in the Freedom that comes from the Love of his Father, and to all he makes us all Citizens of his Kingdom to enjoy and enjoy the unlimited Freedom of those who live to enjoy the life of the children of God and Citizens of his Kingdom.

As for the second sentence, the evil servant repeats again his attack against Civilization.

Christianity is Revolution in essence and substance. Within the History of Civilization Jesus Christ is the Revolution. Condemned to live by the Sword, the human being was rescued for the Word that comes from the Thought of God. The Divine Intelligence pours into Man and directs him towards the Sciences, the Arts, the Law, always advancing, always in struggle, always victorious. It is in the Age of Christ that all the revolutions that have made the Contemporary World what it is take place, and it is in this Field that the Spirit of the Christian Revolution that marked a Before and an After continues to live. All, even the enemies, have been defeated by the Age of Christ. What then was this Apostle of the Lie talking about?

Unnecessary, he says, were the Medieval religious Orders in which the Treasury of Letters found Refuge?

Were they not the ones who picked up the baton of the Apostolate and brought the Gospel to the still wild European regions? The Anskar, Boniface, Francis of Assisi, etc., were they unnecessary? Were those who succeeded them and took the Gospel to the Americas and the Far East unnecessary?

Who did this Zwingli think he was to tell God what was or was not necessary for the Good of the Salvation of the Human Race?

And yet, in his next sentence, saying “just is all that God has permitted and has not forbidden”, the hypocrite denies himself: he denies at once what he has just denied.

28. Just is all that God has permitted and has not forbidden. Therefore, marriage is lawful for all men.

For if God allowed the creation and existence of the religious orders, of which he made use to expand his Gospel, facts written in the books of History, who is who, whatever his name is, to abolish what God blessed?

When Hypocrisy and Pride go hand in hand, nothing good can be expected. The one who blesses, has to give an end to the occasion, and the one who takes away from God and curses what He blessed, does it in his own name and will have to answer before God for his curse against what God set in motion.

In Civilization two are the driving forces that act in its bosom, God and the Devil.

He who loves God, loves his Creation; he who hates his Creation, loves the Devil. There is no other rule, “with God or against God”.

As for the Marriage of Priests the controversy came from a hypocritical soul: God blessed the Procreation and Multiplication of human families before calling Adam and Eve. First He Blesses and then He Begets. Adam was the First Man who called God Father, the First Man whom God called “my son”. His Birth was not by Incarnation but by Blessing. Reproductive Sex was a blessing for all human families. So the First Man, contrary to the Gospel of the Reformation, which picked up the Judaism against which Jesus Christ rose, did not fall by Concupiscence. The reproductive Sexual Act being blessed, it could not be the Flesh under the Law of the blessing that caused the Curse. To make Concupiscence, which arose after the Fall, the root of the Sin that deserved the Curse, a Jewish doctrine that the Reformation made its own, is to deny Christ and reject Jesus.

We note that being the Death of Jesus Christ Prototype of the Death of Adam, by divine projection we see in the Virginity of the Son of Mary the Speech of God on the Cause of the Fall of Adam, his youngest son, who in nothing and for nothing had to do with that Concupiscence that finding field in the Reformers dragged them in this field to resurrect from the grave the Jewish doctrine on the Origin of Adam’s Sin. If Love was and is the fruit of the Tree of Life, War is and was the fruit of the Tree of the knowledge of good and evil, of which by eating, Death being natural to War, he who eats would die; a fact that the Son of God made clear when he said to Peter “He who kills with iron, dies with iron”.

Marriage is a lawful thing for all men and women by reason of God’s Blessing: “Be fruitful and multiply and replenish the Earth”. If anyone knows how this Multiplication could take place without the help of the Sexual Reproductive Act, let him say so.

When Adam and Eve were born of their parents, they lived under the Law of Blessing, not of Concupiscence. This enters the world as an effect of the Fall.

Now then, did the Reformers condemn Jesus Christ for his Sacred Virginitly and despise him for not adhering to the Law of the Blessing?

It seems more than evident that in Jesus Christ the Human Race has that Original Divine Model in which "let us make Man in our Image and after our Likeness" is fulfilled: However, in Jesus Christ we have the Almighty Son of God. And only a madman can think of being another Jesus Christ, like Him a "Priest, King, Lord, and Universal Judge". From the beginning the Saint Spirit said that God makes some priests, others teachers, wise men, and so on. And in being what he is, each one finds his happiness. The Priest has in the Virginitly of Christ his Model. The Catholic Priesthood is a People apart, as was the House of Aaron among the Tribes of Israel; God sets apart and reserves the Christian Priesthood for the Adoration of His Son, and by this it becomes Immaculate in the Image and Likeness of its Lord.

No less true is it that the Holy Spirit said: "Whoever embraces, let him marry". But to make this Law of Mercy a Law of Curse against the Catholic Priesthood is to curse the Lord in whose Image and Likeness God begot the Priestly Church. Ergo, the Apostles of the Gospel of the Reformation hated Christ and loved the Devil, their true master, whose only goal is the destruction of the House of the one who crushed his head, our King and Father Jesus Christ.

29...and from this we conclude that those who call themselves "clerics" sin if, having realized that God does not admit their continence, they do not remedy it by marrying.

The hypocrite has in hypocrisy his glory, and speaks of the God whom he does not love, and because he does not love HIM he discovers that he does not know HIM, for he who knows God loves HIM by the natural reason of his soul. And from his wickedness, (for no one who calls himself a Christian can justify his sins in ignorance once the Redemption has taken place), and pretending to think himself wise, he gives God as evil by accusing Him of calling to the Priesthood and then despising the one whom He calls by reason of the Virginitly to which He was called.

Incontinence refers to the marital or married status of the one who, having free access to natural action, keeps himself by will - or by circumstances - away from contact with the other sex. To call the Consecrated Virginitly of Christ "incontinence" is to put into one's own mouth the words of the Devil, and to curse God for having given Man the Power and Strength to be Christlike in the Divine Priesthood, to which he freely consecrates himself in the use of the fullness of his physical and mental faculties.

But he who is not born of this Spirit and declares himself a priest operates like that accursed son of God who, pretending to be the Envoy of God the Father, dragged the First Man to Death.

The Virginity of Christ is of His Priests, for He being their Head and They being their Body, in all things they are One, the Bride and the Bride, united in Holy Matrimony everlasting by God. Such was the Doctrine of the Holy Spirit. So what was this fool talking about? when he wrote:

30.Those who make a vow of chastity make a promise naively or foolishly. And therefore those who make such vows act treacherously towards pious men.

Who did this fool think himself to be to enter the kingdom of God, to silence the King and God, his Father, and to tell them to their faces what should be and what should not be, what is good or what is bad, what is sinful or what is Christian?

How could that nation of warriors admired in Europe become so cowardly as to get down on their knees before such a hypocrite?

All historians who deserved to be called masters in this Science have observed the Concupiscent Incontinence of the Reformers. Luther, Henry VIII, Calvin, Zwingli, were invincibly dominated by the sexual force, which they raised to the point of making it the reason of their lives, the cause for which they set fire to the whole world.

The Vow of Chastity is an act of temporary renunciation that can be terminated at will for the sake of the salvation of the soul. Anyone can make a Vow of Chastity for a human or sacred cause. There is nothing wrong with it. Neither for contracting it nor for surpassing it, cum laude or without cum laude. "He who embraces, let him marry", let not his fear of recognizing his weakness carry his soul away. God loves all his creatures, some are stronger and others weaker, what counts is his Fatherly Love.

The Vow of Chastity is an Act that is contracted voluntarily and is subject to natural reason. The Priest's Virginity is an Act of God's Call by which Man is born of the Spirit of Holiness of his Lord to overcome and be invincible.

Unfortunately, the Medieval Priesthood dragged the Aristocracy to take over the House of the Lord, to lock the Bride of Christ in the dungeons of their wickedness, and they did not stop until they expelled her from her House and appropriated her goods. The Apostles of the Gospel of the Reformation joined that Evil Aristocracy and, serving the Enemy of Christ, opened the door to that band of thieves who did not hesitate to raise the hatchet and sacrifice on the battlefield the millions of beings buried to their Evil Creeds from that 1517 to 1647.

The fame of rapist that pursued Zwingli deserved well the death of all the witnesses who could raise their voice against his perverse and evil behavior.

PART TWO

THE DOCTRINE OF EXCOMMUNICATION

The Gospel of the Holy Spirit says that at the age of 12 years Jesus appeared in the Temple with the healthy intention of unveiling himself and being invested as king according to his Davidic inheritance. The Holy Spirit continues writing later on about the Necessity of the Death of Christ, already prophesied by God since the days of that same King David whose Crown the Child Jesus went to claim in the Temple. The conclusion of both Chapters leads us to the Word that God addresses to his Son from his Book, when he writes: "Do not be like a horse without a bridle", from where it is seen that before his Son came from Heaven that Father had already seen this irruption in the Temple of his Son Jesus. To that extent God knew his Son. And because He knew Him, He could predict that His irruption in the History of our World would take place under the sign of Anger against the enemy of Man. Jesus enters our world, according to what is written, as King of kings and Lord of lords on His War Horse, and ready to launch Himself against the armies of His Father's Enemy. This was not the Plan of Universal Salvation that God conceived after the Fall.

But beyond this detail, the point we must look at in dealing with the Chapter of the Child in the Temple refers to his Age. The Child was 12 years old. Already a strange phenomenon, that children should open their mouths in front of the Elders, and stranger still that he should be allowed to speak among the Elders of the Temple, is the point on which we must focus our intelligence. Certainly from the age of 14 the children of Israel were considered adults. And as adults they were allowed to speak before the Adults. We are talking in case at the age of 14, the legal age at which the Israelite acquired his majority in front of his people, he had something to say. No such case was ever recorded and it was precisely this exceptionality that allowed the son of Joseph and Mary to make use of the Word.

From this Freedom that Jesus made use of we understand two things:

The first is that because of his physique, all the Elders and those present took it for granted that this Child had reached the age of 14.

The second: that he was allowed to continue speaking reveals to us the fact that the son of Mary and Joseph went to reveal to them that he was the Messiah, that he came from God, his Father, and knew all things. And according to His Intelligence in speaking to them of the things of Heaven and Earth He left them all dumbfounded to the point of allowing Him a Third Day, in which having demonstrated to them that He was the son of David of the Scriptures, they were to make the Final Decision to invest Him as the Legitimate Heir of the Kingdom of Israel.

I have already told in The Divine History of Jesus Christ how that Phenomenon caught the attention of the same Simeon who held Him in his arms as soon as He was born, and filled with the Holy Spirit came to the Temple to tell the Son of God that proclaiming Himself king of Israel according to the laws of men was not the Will of God, His Father. It was He, the Son of God, who had to withdraw until the Fullness of time came, for the Necessity of the Death of the Lamb of God was of Law.

I mean, during the Great Battle that the Bride of the Lord ... discoursed by the Holy Spirit in the Temple, and before whom Jesus bowed in Obedience to God the Father, whose things He was to take care of ... forgetting that there are not two persons, a Christ here and a Jesus there, the theologians of the first centuries fell into heresy because they wanted to put Jesus in one place and Christ in another: while affirming that the Scriptures are the only Source of Christian Thought, they took out their eyes and where it is written and read that Christ is the New Name of Jesus, and hence we speak of Jesus Christ, and the Holy Spirit to reaffirm this New Name given by God to His Son calls Him Christ Jesus; against the Scripture they continued to see in the Messiah and Redeemer two persons, Christ on the one hand and Jesus on the other. This Heretical Reason is what the Devil rescued from the tomb in which the Church was buried by Design of the Holy Spirit, and according to this anti-Christian source we observe in all the theses of the Apostles of the Evil Gospel of the Protestant Reformation that all of them always spoke of Christ, but that Jesus was only used as a reference, forgetting that Christ is the New Name given by God to his Son Jesus, so that if there had not been Jesus, the Christ could not have been born.

We know from the Doctrine of our Holy Mother Catholic Church that the Son and the Holy Spirit became one Being. For before His Incarnation it was doubted that the Holy Spirit of the Father lived in the Son. Moreover, the whole Tama of the Fall, the Treachery of Satan and his allies in the Homicide of Adam, son of God, had in this Doubt its source. What would be the response of the Beloved Son of his Father to the corresponding Prohibition and Death Penalty against all who would make War, Fruit of the Forbidden Tree, their daily bread?

The whole of Creation held its heart in a fist for the next millennia, its breath constricted until its pulse choked, awaiting the answer of the Beloved Son of his Father. We know Jesus' ANSWER, and it was to say before Heaven and Earth: "I AM JESUS CHRIST, he who sees me sees the Father". Hence the Church wrote: The Holy Spirit is God. Ergo: The Son is God, the Father is God; two Persons, One True God.

Erasing this Perfect Unity between the Father and the Son in the Holy Spirit, by reason of which everything that comes from God comes from the Son, Unity whose Intelligence was not understood by the Church of Byzantium, which wanted in its pride to get to God to remove his Son from the midst, following whose heretical rule, which cost the Byzantine Orthodox Church its Destruction, the new Protestant gospel, more subtle in its rhetorical power, repeated the same argument but separating Jesus from Christ, in such a way that man has for Model Christ, the man, but not Jesus, the Son of God, forgetting in that evil way that there is no division in the Son, for HE is Jesus Christ.

This is why in their Theses they always speak of Christ, but never, or as little as possible, of Jesus Christ. We have seen this heretical reason in the preceding Theses of the Swiss Protestant apostle, and we will continue to find it in our path as an evil stone whose nature is to make us fall at the feet of the Evil Sower.

Continuing with his heretical gospel, the Swiss sower of the Tares of Hatred in whose branches Europe would remain until the Second World War, writes in his 31 theses:

31.-Excommunication cannot be dictated by a single person, but by the Church, that is, by the communion of those with whom the possibly excommunicated person lives together with the one who watches over, that is, the pastor.

The Origin of Excommunication resides in the Testament of the Lord to his Bride, to whom he gives the Power to “forgive Sins”. The words are: “What you bind on Earth shall be bound in Heaven, and what you loose on Earth shall be loosed in Heaven”. From where we see the Unity that God engenders between Bridegroom and Bride, which the Apostles of the Gospel of the Saints will translate into the Unity between Body and Head. As Body and Head are one reality, so between the Lord and His House.

This Supreme Power is given to the Chief Shepherd of his flocks, St. Peter. Not without first uniting all his Brethren in the Priesthood to Him, Head of all. And it will be for this reason that the Excommunication in History is signed and sealed by the Successor of St. Peter but in Unity with all his Brothers in the Pastoral Priesthood. And it is only signed against those who, making the Power of the Forgiveness of sins their panacea, fall into the crime of the temple that God destroyed. Namely, “I pay the price of the crime before committing it, and, with the price, I buy forgiveness”.

The Evil Hypocrisy in which the Ancient Temple was installed could not be more scandalous. Not only before God, but also before men, as seen in the episode of Antiochus IV Epiphanes. Because regardless of the malignity in the reaction of the Seleucid, the disgust that the Gentile peoples were provoked by the existence of a priesthood that was proclaimed holy and only true among the nations, and to see that among those saints were devoured alive for being the administrator of the treasury of the Temple....

Then the Power of Binding and Loosing, that is, of Excommunication, being a Sentence that binds Heaven to Earth, the Lord to the Chief of His Shepherds, for it is to St. Peter and his Brothers in the Headship of the Pastoral Body that this Infinite Power is bequeathed, if it were placed in the hands of each pastor, it would result in the absolute disintegration of that Body, for once each one would make use of a Power that binds Eternity, each one would use it according to his own interests and never to God's, which is the Salvation of the Human Race.

On the other hand, we observe that when the Lord bequeaths this Power to Peter, He does it as Chief of his Pastors, that is to say, this Power of Binding and Loosing, the Excommunication, refers exclusively to the Pastoral Activity, that is to say, to the Unity of the Doctrine of the Gospel that came down from Heaven for the Salvation of the Earth. From where it is seen that the following thesis did not come down from Jesus Christ, who in no case was the Hidden God of the Reformation. Let us read 32. Only he can be punished with excommunication who causes scandal publicly and notoriously.

The tyrannical Despotism that the author of these theses claims for himself has no limits. He pretends to make the sin of men the cause of eternal damnation. He claims for himself this apostle of the Evil Tares the Power to condemn to death here on Earth for sins which the Priest of Christ has the Power to absolve, and he wants to condemn to Hell those who for sins of conduct, which do not refer to the pastoral doctrine, are forgiven by the priestly Absolution.

Zwingli alienates the flock of Jesus Christ from its legitimate Shepherds and denies to the Son of God the Power to absolve or condemn men on account of their sins committed not against the Doctrine that came from Heaven but against their own souls.

Excommunication refers to the Sentence of God against Satan and his brothers in rebellion against the Spirit of the Divine Doctrine on the Equality in the Fraternity of all his children. The Forgiveness of sins refers to the offenses that by our conduct we cause evil against ourselves. And this is why we see that Excommunication in the History of the Church is always produced in response to theological doctrines that pretended to supplant or modify the Doctrine of Heaven. It was never signed against the sins to which we are all subjected by the circumstances of the world. These sins depend on the absolution of the home pastor. Excommunication can only come from the Pastor of pastors in communion with his brethren in the everlasting Apostolic Preservation of the Doctrine of Jesus Christ. So that whoever is raised up on the Day of Judgment under that Sentence will be sentenced by it to the sentence against Satan.

Needless to say that such an infinite Power involving Eternity could not be left in the hands of an Individual, and hence the Lord bound St. Peter as Head of his Brethren in the Spirit, at the same time giving them all by Communication that Power which unites them to Jesus Christ and makes of Them in HIM one Being with God.

To the disgrace of the Swiss, the Absolute Power of a Tyrant was granted to Zwingli and Calvin, who did not hesitate to condemn to death all those who opposed their Evil Sowing, for whose anti-Christian doctrine they deserved the Excommunication that the Holy Spirit launched against the Enemies of the Doctrine of Jesus Christ.

PART THREE

THE SECOND DEATH: HELL AND PURGATORY

57. The true Sacred Scriptures know nothing of a Purgatory after death. 58. Judgment over the dead belongs exclusively to God. 59.-The less God has given us to know of these things, the more we must beware of attempting to know anything about them....

The Tragedy that the Fall of the first of the sons of God born on Earth exported to all men, with his Transgression opening to Death the door of the Future of the nations, (in the mythologies of our ancients this event was collected as Pandora's Box), was a tragedy of such absolute enormity that the entire Cosmos was dragged to the edge of the Abyss of its Destruction. The elevation of Homo Sapiens to Divine Sonship was made from a natural state of high dimension on whose ground Man planted his feet as lord among and over all beasts and all living species. His heart and mind touched the stars when the sons of God "not of this creation" (in modern scientific terms: intelligent beings from other worlds), came down from Heaven, approached Men and sowed in their souls the Seed of Immortality. Nothing had to be done to receive the Immortality that they themselves already enjoyed, it was a Gift from God to his children, from the Creator of the Heavens to the children of the Earth. These words: Hell, Purgatory, did not enter into the vocabulary of those children of God, nor into the dictionary of the children of men.

With the Coronation of the First Man who called God Father and who from God received his New Name: Adam, Death was left behind. Immortality was a Fact. There was no turning back. The loss of Immortality could only come as an effect of a Rebellion against the Law of the Kingdom of God. Obviously in the heart and mind of the Generation of Adam, son of God, king, such a Transgression did not enter his head, his World was a Wonderful Creation and the Future of his Kingdom was Divine.

But not only in the Vocabulary and Dictionary of the sons of God, including our Adam, the words Purgatory and Hell did not fit: in the Being of one of them all, whose Name was Jesus, and whose Head wore the Crown of the King of kings and Lord of lords of all the sons of God, each one king of his World, such Words did not even exist in gestation.

Hell, what was that? And yet in the Sentence that His Beloved Father signed against Satan, the head of the Serpent, the Banishment for Eternity of God's Creation is dictated. Where would this Condemned One go? To what place in the Outer Darkness that surrounds the Cosmos will the Satanic Serpent be banished forever and ever? Why such a harsh Sentence? What was happening? What had happened? Why was it unforgivable to have tempted Adam? What event had occurred to be understood in the term of Unforgivable for Eternity in the eyes of God, who is Love? What had Satan done to deserve from the Beloved Father such a Condemnation of Banishment for Eternity from the terms of the Cosmos?

In The Divine History of Jesus Christ I narrated the History of the Wars of the children of God during the Days of Creation and how God the Father, wanting to give an End to that Situation, revolutionized the Creative Act by looking at the Participation of all his children in the Spirit of the Creator. It was not in vain that he led them all to the other side of the Frontiers of the Field of the Galaxies and unveiled to them the Abyss covered by the Darkness product of their destruction of the Uncreated Cosmos by HIMSELF. This Darkness covers the Infinite in the three natural dimensions. At its Center the Cosmos Created by God expands as an animated ocean of self-existence doubling its dimensions for Eternity. Outside these Shores matter is dead, a cosmos reduced to rubble extends its cemetery to infinity. What would it be like to be thrown into that Abyss covered by Darkness, falling eternally until setting foot in Infinity?

Terror seized the children of God. The word Hell entered the Dictionary of those for whose sake God the Father was forced to confront them with a Sentence of Banishment of that Nature. In that of the Firstborn of all this word found no home; His Heart and Mind was in the Creation of the Earth, and saying LET THERE BE LIGHT, light was made, an event which I have narrated in Book Three of the Divine History of Jesus Christ.

Once the Earth was separated from the Darkness and the Vault of the Constellations was created, God closed the History of the Wars of his children by raising the Law of Prohibition, under Penalty of Death, that is, of Eternal Banishment from his Creation, against whoever rose up against his Empire and dared to eat of the Fruit of the Tree of the Science of Good and Evil, that is, to make War a modus vivendi.

What happened, it happened. And we all know what happened.

Believing those rebellious sons (about whom God told Moses that they slept with the daughters of men and from them gave birth to the heroes of old, producing from the crossing of races of different creations the consequent corresponding evils); in the belief that the Love of Father in God would be stronger in the Creator than the Judge in God, they rose up against the Law, and used the first Man as an axe of war. When Man understands this, his manipulation, in his desperation implores God for Vengeance, and God, as Father and as Judge, not only grants it but swears Sentence of Eternal Banishment against "that generation of rebellious sons".

The Old Testament records the Events of the War between God and those rebellious sons to avoid the convening of this Tribunal in which the Sentence would be Officially Signed. The salvation of the Homicidal and Fratricidal Satan was in defeating the son of Eve by whose hand God would satisfy the Revenge claimed by Adam.

We know what happened. The Vengeance was consummated. The Court of Heaven, under the Presidency of the Judge, God the Father, met, as we see in Revelation, and the Judgment was signed. The Old World was judged. The Words of its prophets were realized. The First Judgment and the First Death reached the nations of the ancient world.

But the Final Judgment of that World was left in the Hands of the Son of God, Jesus Christ.

Then, closing the question of Purgatory, the Nations of the Ancient World judged by that Tribunal presided over by God the Father, sleep in their trembling awaiting the Celebration of the Final Judgment, in which the Second Death will overtake them

Tremendous Responsibility the one that God deposited in His Beloved Son: To condemn to Eternal Banishment a World whose Inheritance was Sin, and thrown at the feet of the horses of Death saw his soul transformed into a cursed field in whose soil the Evil Tares of Hatred found blessed soil and gave birth to the tree of War.

Yet His Father could not and would not fail to make known to His Beloved Son the true Monstrous Dimension of the Prison in which the children of Earth who would be condemned to the Second Death would be imprisoned in Infinity for Eternity. This Final Judgment would be His.

The Judgment held against the children "not of this creation" was already sealed. And although the Evil One was released for a time on Earth, the Sentence of Eternal Banishment was Irrevocable and would be fulfilled in due time.

This said, can a Judge be Perfect if he does not know the nature of the Sentence he passes?

Behold, therefore, that God willed to lead by the Hand His Beloved Son to know the Nature of that Hell, natural to the Banishment of Creation for Eternity. And here is why the Holy Spirit who came from the Son, in the Name of God, came down as a Tongue of Fire and communicated to his brothers, our Apostles, the Knowledge that lives in his Spirit, and living since then in Them led them to live and die for the Salvation of the Human Race.

When They departed, His Wisdom, spoken privately among the perfect, remained in His last disciples, and engendered in the Church the Concept of Hell and Purgatory, over which, not having a Perfect Image, but being its Root of Divine nature, it remains throughout the generations so that it may remain in the Church, remains through the generations so that we all struggle to conquer the Heart of this Universal Judge, for Life in Immortality is in the Hands of our Savior, Lord, King and Father, and the souls of our neighbor in ours, with our works, of thought, word and deed, seeking to conquer them for the Love of God.

When the Reformation and its foolish apostles wrote that.

The true Holy Scripture knows nothing of a Purgatory after death. Judgment over the dead belongs exclusively to God. The less God has given us to know of these things the more we must beware of trying to know anything about them".....

... the Spirit who descended from God, Father and Son, and from Pentecost spread his Message of Universal Salvation throughout the Earth, did not speak in them.

The Ancient World, in the dimension of the First Death awaits the Final Judgment in which its Absolution or its Second Death will be decided: to be reunited with the Evil One in Hell. Until this Judgment, God has willed that the Plenitude of the Nations rise up and bowing their Knees before the Universal Judge implore Mercy for a World thrown to the Empire of Death by the Evil of those who having attained Eternal Life preferred to live it without God rather than to live it in the Light of His Law.

That corrupt and wicked servants used their bishoprics and papacies to buy that salvation with metal, taking advantage of the ignorance of the peoples, neither takes away nor adds anything to the Event of the Dream in which those who lived the First Judgment await the Second Death. They did not know the Redeemer and slept in their faults. This same Redeemer will be the one who will raise them up to make known His Final Judgment.

May God grant that we find Grace in His eyes and the Plenitude of the Nations come to be One People, and United in one Divine Kingdom we reach the most Wonderful Victory to which we can aspire: To conquer the Heart of our Creator so that His Word, origin of the Life of the Human Being, in His Mercy will give to the Human Genre, His Creation, Eternal Life in His Absolution.

PART FOUR.

THE CONFLICT OF THE TWO AUTHORITIES: THE CIVIL AND THE ECCLESIASTICAL.

I

Before God there is no need to open the book of life of those who claiming to come in His Name with the fruits of their works demonstrate the falsity of their pretended origin. Since Intelligence in its primary form of Philosophy rose analytical thought, we thinkers were empowered by the Christian spirit to concentrate our strength in words and without the need to penetrate into the intimate life of their authors, to resolve the Truth which they projected upon History.

No one should forget that everything that is done in the Present has repercussions in the Future. We walk and live in the Dimension of Universal History. A written work remains bearing its fruit in Time. It is up to the Intelligence that flows from God to enter into its core and see its nature. If its fruit is Hatred and War, that work does not come from God; if it is of Peace and Fraternity, its Origin is in the Creator of all Life.

Thus, and although in the matter of Zwingli's intimate life, as in the lives of the other apostles of the Protestant Rebellion, the interests of his heirs prevailed over the Truth, transmitting to the world biographies in which the chaff was thrown away and the sowers of Hate and War who sowed Europe in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries were presented to us as messengers of Divine Love; this perverse manipulation of Historical truth left aside for now, the fundamental fact about the Origin of their Historical Statements, whether of Jesus Christ or of the Evil One, without needing to dip into those tales for the intellectually handicapped which are the official biographies of Martin Luther, Henry VIII, Calvin and Zwingli, by words alone we can make our way to that nucleus and determine the true source from which they flowed.

The fruits are contained in the seeds. The seeds are the source of those fruits. Regardless of the hand that signs their statements they carry in their bosom a historical reality of their own: to open the shell and see the nucleus that makes that seed an evil or divine germ is the function of every spirit of Intelligence.

Whether it was Zwingli or any other subject who signed the words that follow, authorship being an inconsequential matter in relation to their fruits, it is enough to confront them with the Wisdom by God displayed in His Son to remove the mask from the lamb and see in its monstrous reality the wolf.

Let us read:

34.. the pomp which the "ecclesiastical authorities" display, as it is often said, has no foundation in the doctrine of Christ; 35.. but, on the contrary, the civil and secular authorities have power and foundation in the doctrine and deeds of Christ. 36.. That authoritative power which ecclesiastical authority claims to exercise belongs, in reality, to the secular authorities, provided they are Christian.

In the first sentence, 34, the author dresses himself as a blessed man, invoking the simplicity of the Apostles. Needless to say that the Protestant Rebellion was based on a Corruption of the Servants of the Bride of the Lord, corruption visible to all eyes and exposed to scandal in the contest of Savonarola against Alexander VI. It is foolish to say that if the College of Roman Pastors had submitted to the Reformation requested by the Holy Spirit in the Councils of Basel and Constance, this situation of perverse corruption would not have degenerated into the Pornocracy of the Bishops at the end of the XV and the beginning of the XVI century. It is even more foolish to believe that this Pornocracy was exclusive to the Italian Curia. The Pornocracy of the German Bishops far surpassed that of the Italian Bishops. Luther should have taken the beam out of his eye before being scandalized by the mote in another's eye. But no one is perfect when the true engine of his life is ambition. Ambition to go further, which in Luther reached its peak with his position as University Professor, and in the case of Zwingli with his position as alpine parish priest. Too tight a shirt for so much muscle!

The pomp of the "ecclesiastical authorities" was by no means an invention of the Bishopric. It came with Medieval Civilization itself. The dress and its ornaments revealed the position of each person in a Medieval Society structured in three perfectly delimited classes, which would later be joined by the Bourgeoisie, bringing with it the Modern Age. Everyone was placed in the natural corset that corresponded to the social position of the time. A king without his crown was not a king; a bishop without his mitre was not a bishop. The workers' guilds likewise had their own paraphernalia. The only social class exempt from all external pomp was the poor class; that is, the vast majority.

Even in our days, clothing marks the social position. A military man without his cap is not understood. A judge without his robe is not a judge. A Pope without his ring is not a Bishop of Rome.

It goes without saying but it must be said: From that unnatural disposition to make gold and silver the foundation of social position came corruption in all social classes of the Middle Ages. Men lost the divine meaning of their existence. They despised the providential function of their labor in Society, where no one is more than his neighbor because each one has his providential labor thanks to which the whole Society grows like a tree, strong, healthy and robust.

Evil was not born in the ecclesiastical authorities; it was imposed on Civilization during the last stage of the Roman Empire, and was picked up by the Byzantine Empire, which cultivated this boast at the Constantinopolitan Court until it became a science, the most sacred of the arts.

We do not observe in the time of the Roman Bishopric of Gregory I the Great such a Byzantine pomp. The trace of the fall of the Italian Bishopric in that curve of corruption is detected in the X Century when the Italian Aristocratic Families made the Bishopric their own; action that later the great German families would imitate and would lead to the degree of perversion that we discover in Luther's Germany.

Protest, therefore, very praiseworthy against the pomp of the ecclesiastical authorities by Divine Mandate obliged to Apostolic Simplicity, for which there is no gold but Jesus Christ, their Lord, from whom comes the Greatness and Authority.

But if this thesis had been added to this protest against the pomp of the ecclesiastical authorities, nothing could be said against its author. Unfortunately, the Swiss author used this defect, natural to all the upper classes of his time, to launch a frontal attack against the Church. And to say against the Bride is to say against Her Bridegroom, Christ Jesus, her Head, or is it possible to break a person's leg and not offend his head?

The lamb spoke, immediately the wolf spoke, saying:

But, on the contrary, the civil and secular authorities have power and foundation in the doctrine and deeds of Christ.

The Serpent's cunning is poisonous. He wants to make people believe that the ecclesiastical authority has its Power and Foundation in the pomp of the Vesture and not in Christ, and that having despised this Divine Foundation the ecclesiastical authorities came to base their Power and foundation in that pomp. Which is an absolute falsehood.

The foundation and power of the Ecclesiastical Authority is Christ. Whether the bishop wears gold or not neither adds to nor detracts from the Authority he receives from Christ, and only a barbarian and an ignoramus can believe that a hand with a Ring is more precious than the Naked Hand of Christ.

The cause of the legitimate Rebellion against the pomp of the Servants of Christ took place when they themselves gave up the Naked Hand of Christ and preferred the hand with a ring. Here there was legitimacy for a Protest. But using this legitimacy to cut off the Hand of Christ could only have its Source in the Evil One.

The second part of the Sentence, the civil and secular authorities have power and foundation in the doctrine and deeds of Christ, is of tit children. It is enough to remember what is written: "Render to Caesar what is Caesar's and to God what is God's".

But what this Rebel pretended was to take from God what is His, and consequently he wrote immediately:

That authoritative power which the ecclesiastical authority pretends to exercise belongs, in reality, to the secular authorities, provided they are Christian.

I do not know whether he who reads this Thesis has intelligence or is simply a repeater of doctrines that come to him and his whole existence is reduced to serving as a slave to a power whose foundation is the destruction of the Edification by God of a Temple for the Adoration of His Son.

Zwingli's Denial of the Doctrine of Christ is Absolute. The Rejection of the Divine Word that mandates the existence of both Civil and Ecclesiastical powers in Peaceful Christian Coexistence is Total.

Zwingli was calling for Theocracy, and although he refused to have his doctrine referred to that of Luther, in this Chapter both were brothers in arms in the service of the Evil Sower. Only the Evil One could be the Origin of a Doctrine by which the Gospel of Jesus Christ, which commands the Coexistence of both Powers, is Denied.

We observe that although at the beginning in Israel there existed both powers, King and Priest, at the end of its history the Jewish people recognized only one Authority: the Theocracy of the Temple, in whose Authority the Civil Power and the Religious Power were delegated. That Theocracy was the one that caused the confrontation to death with the Seleucid Power, and determined the Independence with the Maccabees, to return to the Theocracy in its Monarchic form with the Hasmoneans.

God could not allow such an invasion of one Power by the other, and decreed the destruction of the Temple of Jerusalem.

With the Advent of Jesus Christ proceeds to the Separation of both Powers, which will forever remain in Coexistence in the bosom of the Kingdom of God, speaking for Eternity, and would be subject on Earth to natural conflicts until finally reaching that Coexistence, enriching for both Powers, the Civil and the Ecclesiastical.

We see how the History of these past Two Millennia has been a Transcription of these struggles announced in the Doctrine of Jesus Christ. The Chapter of the Protestant Reformation meant a Denial of the Doctrine of Jesus Christ in favor of the Civil Power, and wanting to make the Bride of Christ a slave in the service of the princes of this world, and because it did, the Reformation immediately degenerated into a Rebellion against God: Father and Son.

The genocides against the Catholics carried out by the Protestant monarchic theocracies, an imitation of the Hasmonean Theocracy elevated to the imperial model, are written; their final delirium tremens was the Thirty Years' War; however, the Supreme Protestant Apotheosis would not be realized until the 20th century, in which the hatreds sown in those two Protestant centuries finally bore their infernal evil fruit: the World Wars.

At this point in History any reader can see that the Separation of the two Powers, the Civil and the Ecclesiastical, and their Peaceful Coexistence in the Service of the Nations are the Basis and Foundation of our Christian Civilization. History has demonstrated to the nations of Protestant Theocratic Origin that that Annihilation of the Two Divine Powers, the Civil and the Ecclesiastical, neither has nor had nor will have any other sense than the Destruction of Civilization.

The ambition of Zwingli and his brothers in arms to be something more than a professor of theology and a parish priest led them to perdition.

II

To speak of Civil or Secular Power and Ecclesiastical Power involves us in the True Knowledge of the Structure of the Kingdom of God in Eternity, Model of every social structure in the Universe. But let us record its denial before proceeding. Wrote Zwingli:

37. All Christians without exception owe obedience to secular authority, 38. as long as it does not command things that go against God. 39. Therefore, the laws of secular authority in their totality must be in conformity with the will of God, so that they protect the oppressed, even if he does not raise his voice.

Resolving the negative in the positive, we can say:

Every Christian owes obedience to the ecclesiastical authority... provided it does not go against the Civil Authority created by God... so that both proceeding from God and being ordained for fraternal coexistence for the Peace of Nations both are subject to the same Social Spirit Creator of Civilization... which delegates to the Civil Authority the Administration of Justice and to the Ecclesiastical Authority the defense of Divine Truth.

The contrary: to annul one of the two Authorities raised up by God for the Good of His Kingdom, is an evil act whose fruit is War.

Thus it is, every man is a citizen of the kingdom of God, and as such, regardless of his social position, whether he belongs to the civil or ecclesiastical authority, all conduct is subject to Justice, and vice versa, the thought of all is subject to Divine Truth, so that he who believes himself beyond Justice, because he belongs to the ecclesiastical body, as he who believes himself not subject to Divine Truth, because he belongs to the civil body: both are guilty of crime before God. For Justice without Truth is the door to corruption, to dictatorship and finally to civil war. And Truth without Justice leads to theocratic despotism of those who place themselves beyond good and evil, and believing themselves equal to God with their evil pathology pervert the Image of God in Man.

That it is up to the civil or secular authority to order the laws according to the Will of God, as the Swiss Rebel says, when the ecclesiastical Authority in which that Divine Truth lives and manifests itself has been abolished, and this independently of the conduct of its representatives, in this always following the Jesus-Christian Wisdom: "Do as they say, but do not imitate what they do"; to follow this thesis of concentration of the two Divine Authorities by annulment of one is to raise the Banner of Rebellion against the Creator of the Kingdom of His Son, who has ordained a Universal or Catholic Religious Authority and a Secular or Civil Authority, making Truth rest in one and Justice in the other. The fruit of the Coexistence of both is the Jesu-Christian Peace, that is to say, sustained by the King and Universal Supreme Pontiff: Jesus Christ, in whom both Authorities are sustained.

Therefore, to reduce both Authorities to One, is to rise in Open Rebellion against the Crown of the Son of God, the One in Whom both Authorities can exist and having in HIS Trunk and Source both enjoy the Vitality of His Divine Nature.

The malignity of the Swiss Rebel is discovered in his next thesis, when he writes:

40. Only the civil authority has the right to sentence to death without provoking the wrath of God. But it can sentence to death only those who publicly and notoriously scandalize against what God has commanded.

Thesis in which is seen the Abolition of the Doctrine of Jesus Christ, who abrogated the Death Penalty saying:

“Ye have heard that it was said to them of old time, Thou shalt not kill: he that killeth shall be liable to judgment. But I say to you that everyone who is angry with his brother shall be liable to judgment, and he who calls him scum shall be liable to the Sanhedrin, and he who calls him madman shall be liable to hell fire. If, therefore, you go to present an offering before the altar and there remember that your brother has something against you, leave your offering there before the altar, go first to reconcile with your brother and then present your offering again. Show yourself conciliatory to your adversary as you go with him on the way, lest he hand you over to the judge, and the judge to the bailiff, and you be put in prison. For verily I say unto thee, thou shalt not come out thence till thou pay the last penny.”

Doctrine in which it is seen how Justice is raised between man and man, and the Death Penalty is left to the Court of God, so that here on Earth the spirit of the Fraternity is the tribunal between the offended and offender, and the court of justice that determines the cause given the impossibility of reconciliation. Civil Tribunal that is dispossessed of the Power over Life, which only corresponds to God, by whose dispossession and reversion to the Creator of Life the Death Sentence is abolished.

By restoring the Death Penalty as a Divine Power in the hands of Secular Authority the Protestant rebels, swearing to come from God, rose up against the Doctrine of His Son, thus standing condemned before God by following the example of Satan, whose Rebellion had for its cause the rejection of the Crown of Jesus Christ.

It is not in vain to observe that in the European nations finally won for the Catholic doctrine the Death Penalty came to be abolished and remained in the nations where the Protestant Rebellion was erected as a Temple of Secular Authority.

But where the evil spirit, which in Zwingli was its source, is really discovered, is in the second part of his thesis, in which he says that the Secular Authority must rise as an armed wing against those who oppose its rebellious doctrine. Let us copy:

... But it can sentence to death only those who publicly and notoriously scandalize against what God has ordained.

First he says that only the Civil Authority has the Legitimate Power to condemn to death, with which he rejects any trial against him as a heretic; and immediately he says that this Civil Power must be used against heretics who reject his Protestant Reformation. From where it is understood that the one who will dictate what is or is not scandal against what God has ordained will be him; he, Zwingli, will be God on Earth for a day, and it will be him, the Swiss God, who will decree who must die and who must live according to his doctrine of what is or is not scandal for God, ergo, for him.

The heaven that Zwingli set the roof of his ambition was the throne of God. He and he alone would decree the Abolition of the Christian Millenarian Church and set himself up as the God whose Word would be the Source upon which Life and Death would rest in the idolatrous territories that would proclaim him their god on Earth.

In this evil spirit he continued to advance toward the supplanting of the Son of God on the Throne of his kingdom, saying:

41.- If in a just manner the civil authority gives counsel and aid, counsel and aid for which it will render an account before God, it is also bound to provide the bodily sustenance of those who have been judged by it. 42.- But if, on the contrary, the civil authorities act outside the rule of Christ, it is the will of God that they be removed from office. 43.- To sum up: The best and strongest legislative government is that which rules according to the will of God, while the worst and weakest government is that which acts only according to its own will.

Being the pretension of his ambition to be the one who would dictate what is the will of God or what is not the will of God, after taking hold of his kind and generous venom that takes care of the damned, he immediately raises the banner of rebellion to death against those who oppose his divine doctrine; if he allows himself to be voluntarily dismissed, all are so friendly, otherwise iron and fire, that if the German was willing to set fire to the whole world in defense of his truth, the Swiss would not be less so.

The third proposition remains on the same evil wave. He, Zwingli, is the interpreter of God's will, ergo, the best government will be that which is administered according to his criteria, and that which is not, to hell. A saint the man! And what a saint, he went on:

44.- True worshippers invoke God in spirit and in truth without boasting before men. The hypocrites do their deeds for men to see; but now they have received their reward. 46-. Thus, the songs in the temple and the preaching much, but without devotion and only to earn money, are things done seeking the praise of men or for mere profit.

Whoever pretended to be a god, in order to do so would have to rob the Son of God of his words. Which tells us that these words having been repeated for 1,600 years until it became boring to hear them, that they sounded new in Swiss ears, not wanting to qualify them as donkey ears, it does reveal to us the level of illiteracy in which the Alps lived in those days. Illiteracy that on the one hand explains the intellectual disability necessary for this evil seed to find fertile soil. On the other hand, it reveals to us the nature of the bed of corruption on whose mattress the College of the Shepherds of the Lord's Flock had gone to sleep. Had these sowers of the Gospel of Hate not failed to fulfill their duties of Vigilance, they would have found no soil in which to plant their Wars of Religion.

But that Dream of the Bishops was already announced by the Son of God Jesus Christ in the Parable of the Evil Tares and then confirmed by HIMSELF as Divine Prophet in His Apocalypse, warning them that the Devil would be Released in the Second Millennium.

But Time for mortals has a value different from the value held by Eternity. If for God a century is a day, for us a century is a life. And if for Him who is Indestructible the vicissitudes of the wars of the centuries are short episodes, to whom a virus is enough to be destroyed: a single line of that episode can be an eternity suffered. It was for this reason that God wanted his Son to see this human reality subject to the Law of Death. For how can the Power of the Final Universal Judgment be placed in the hands of one who has not suffered in his own Being this Reality?

In this happens what happens with all things and we all know by experience. As we all say, we do not know what the pain of the loss of a loved one is until we suffer it ourselves; until then we observe those who suffer it as if they were beings from another world; suddenly death knocks on your door and that world of yours, so perfectly shielded against the pain of others, falls down.

God did not want His Son to sit in the Tribunal of Universal Judgment without knowing what is the Life of Man subject to the Law of Death. And hence the Holy Spirit said that "God willed to perfect his Son", to bring him to Perfection. For if before God says: "I AM GOD and there shall not be formed another after Me", thus revealing as Father that His Son will not pass through the Path that He lived until BEING WHO HE IS, this Eternal Determination does not imply that His Formation as King, Lord and Judge would remain outside the Love of the Father who educates His Son for His Good and the Good of all His Kingdom.

And at the same time, by making Him Man, He incarnated for us the Man whom He created in the Beginning and in order to whose Existence He created the Heavens and the Earth. So that there can be no Man except in the Image and Likeness of His Son, and in this order the Education of all peoples must direct its Building to the Formation of this Man, Image and Likeness of the Son of God, in each one of us. For in whom God sees his Son, God sees a son, and by this Love enjoys the Nature of one who is the son of God in the Image of his Son, by whom and in whom he participates in Life according to his Indestructible Nature.

This is the Doctrine with which the Holy Spirit revolutionized History, laid the foundations of our Civilization, imbued it with His Indestructibility and communicated to it His Invincibility. If we cannot see the Image of the Son of Two in this Zwingli, how can God see in him His Beloved Son!

It is enough to read the following thesis to see it thus:

47.- Every man should prefer to let himself be killed rather than scandalize the Christian or make him fall into disgrace.

From where one wonders: Since he scandalized the whole of Christianity, why did he not let himself be killed and instead of sacrificing himself, following the example of Jesus Christ, he preferred to kill anyone who opposed him?

Is that what Jesus Christ did: kill his enemies?

The crimes of the Swiss are written, and although justified in that this was the Will of God, to kill everyone who opposed their ambitions to be “like the gods”, on the Day when they will be called before the Tribunal of his Son, they will answer for their crimes. For “Peter, he who kills with iron, dies with iron”.

PART FIVE

THE DIVINE INSTITUTION OF THE SACRED SUPPER OF THE LORD AND KING JESUS CHRIST

For if God so loved the world that He gave His Son that whoever believes in Him should not perish, but have eternal life in the Love of His Son; so much did the Son love God and the world that He did not hesitate to sacrifice Himself as a Lamb so that in His Blood all might find in Him the Door to Eternal Life opened.

And if He had not sacrificed Himself as a Lamb, no one would have been saved. If that Son had not loved God with infinite strength, His Judgment would fall upon all men without offering mercy or having pity because of the total and absolute absence of Hope of finding in God a Tender Heart and a Spirit full of Compassion for the Tragedy of the Human Race.

This Heart and this Spirit is the one that the Son of God discovered in his Father and conquered by his Tenderness and Compassion glorified him before Heaven and Earth by placing his Life in his Arms.

For this reason the Savior says at the opening of the Holy Supper:

Father, the hour has come; glorify your Son
that the Son may glorify thee,
according to the power which thou hast given him over all flesh,
that He may give eternal life to all whom Thou hast given Him.
This is eternal life,
that they may know you, the only true God,
and Jesus Christ whom thou hast sent.

And indeed the Image that was had of God in the world of the Hebrews was that of an Almighty and Hard Lawgiver, the Transgression of whose Word carried the corresponding Penalty. The Power of God, not his Love, was the screen that blinded their eyes.

The millenary experience had hardened the hearts and minds of the children of Abraham, making it impossible for Jews and Pagans to see in God that Wonderful Creator of Heaven and Earth; Heaven and Earth in which the Manifestation of His Love for Creation becomes visible and calls all Creatures to His Paradise.

For this, to discover to us that Divine Heart in the Almighty Creator of the Cosmos, God sent us his Son, who being the Son of his entrails knew those entrails as his own. It was for this reason that Jews and Pagans, both forged in the fire of the millennia of the Wars of the empires, all having a stone for a heart, the Love of God could not penetrate that bloody shield behind which all were protected from the Curse, which weighed on all nations since the days of the Fall of the first of the kingdoms known to the Earth.

To break that shield, to tear down that Wall, to make the True Light of the True Knowledge of the Divine Creator fill the void and exterminate the darkness of ignorance that Death had sown in all the hearts of the world, this Victory only the Son of God could deliver to that Most Beloved Father of His, for Love of whom He placed in His Arms His Glory, the Glory of the King of kings and Lord of lords of His Empire.

It is not in vain then that knowing this Almighty Love, from Son to Father, Jesus Christ said:

Now thou, Father, glorify me near thyself with the glory that I had near you before the world existed.

Glory, indeed, that we see restored and multiplied before Heaven when all the Powers of the House of the Creator of the Universe and of the Cosmos proclaimed with one Voice:

To Him who sits on the Throne and to the Lamb,
the blessing, the honor, the glory and the empire
for ever and ever

Thus the Father sits the Son on his throne as God and Lord, so that the Worship due to the Father is due to the Son, and whoever does not worship the Son does not worship that Father who sat him at his Right Hand to receive the Same Worship and Glory as God the Creator of the New Heavens and the New Earth, Lord of Infinity and Eternity.

The Lord's Supper is therefore the Commemoration of the Victory that revolutionized and restructured the Universe as if from His Victory the Creation had been founded anew and from it reconfigured in a Wonderful Spirit: To make the Love of the Creator of His Son Jesus Christ the Foundation of the existence of all things.

And he who does not love the Son of God does not love his Father, and will not enter his Paradise, for only the Citizens of his Kingdom, whose Universal King is that Son, Jesus Christ, will enter the Paradise of God and enjoy eternal Life.

Those therefore who abominated and abominate the Lord's Supper, the CATHOLIC MASS, and declared and declare the Mass to be an Abomination are in Rebellion against this Victory, and because they led the Believers to the gates of Hell by this Rebellion they will answer before the Universal Judge, that Jesus Christ in whose name, according to them, they abolished the Mass and declared it an Invention of His Bride, the Holy MOTHER Catholic Church.

The CATHOLIC MASS was inaugurated as a Sacred Institution by the Almighty Son of God, Jesus Christ, whose Omnipotent Voice was obeyed by Heaven and Earth, and being recognized by the Word of the Son of the Lord: Space, Time and Matter were ordered according to His Word in accordance with the Omniscient Wisdom of His Father.

The Sacred Supper was the Song of an Eternal Victory that the entire Creation celebrated with infinite Joy and will be Celebrated for Eternity by all who love Him. Whoever does not celebrate this Victory will not enter the Paradise of God. Because although the Hope of Universal Salvation is the Grace of the Father to Humanity, the Holy Spirit did not hesitate to say: "Hope that is seen is not Hope". Word that the Enemies of the Bride of the Lord conjured and rebelled against her Wisdom by sowing in hearts and minds the Tares of "Salvation by Predestination" and by "Faith alone", just as although being disciples of the Devil by the rational knowledge of being Christ son of God, Jesus must get out of the way and let pass to Paradise even those "who violate the Mother of the Church, Blessed Virgin Mary".

Against the Wisdom of God who calls us to keep us in constant struggle for our own and everyone's salvation, those rebels who rise up against the Son of God by invoking Christ, believing themselves conquerors of the Devil and Death, lead those who follow him to the gates of their eternal damnation. But the Gate to the eternal Life of Paradise is the Victory of Jesus Christ, whose Glory is celebrated in the Sacred Act of the Catholic Mass, and he who abhors this Act of Joy abhors God.

The Judgment of the King upon all of you who were and remain detached from this Victory is one of Condemnation. Every son knows his father, and as such I say to you that if you do not abhor those who led you to the gates of hell, and remain declaring the Mass to be an abomination, you will not enter the Kingdom of my Father. The Kingdom of the Son of God is a kingdom of Joy and Honor, Dignity, Strength and Wisdom, in the words of God:

Of Power, Wealth, Wisdom, Strength, Honor, Glory and Blessing.

Having then in the Treasury of the Written Word, which has bequeathed to us by Revelation the Jewel of the Full Knowledge of the Nature of Him who sits at the Right Hand of God as Almighty King, who were those and who are these who yet, knowing that God has glorified His Beloved Son to the point of seating Him on His throne, dared to confess and do confess for their Eternal Damnation and of those who follow them to the Gates of Hell, the following words?

50.- Only and exclusively God Himself forgives sins through Christ Jesus, our Lord. 51.-Whoever allows the human creature to forgive sins strips God of his glory in order to give it to that which is not God. This is at bottom pure idolatry. 52.- Hence the confession of sins made before a priest or simply before one's neighbor is not to be considered as forgiveness of sins, but as a prudent request for good counsel.

Fools, sons of a stone, of perverted intelligence who only recognize as truth what shines with the color of stones, sons of barbarians without love for Civilization nor for your neighbor, less than your fathers of the caves and more animal than the savages against whom you decreed extermination in the name of your evil confessions, since like those animals that mechanically repeat mechanically the words that are taught to them thus you the verses of the Bible, without understanding to understand what with your lips you pronounce, have you never read what is written? :

Can the Power of the Son of God be abolished by unworthy servants, who will be judged for their crimes? Do you want to dethrone the Almighty Son of the Creator of the Cosmos on the basis of your perverse adoration without limits towards stones?

Do you not know that the Forgiveness of sins was given by God to Aaron and his brothers and only they could forgive offenses against Heaven and Earth by a bloody sacrifice, and that this Power could not be abolished by the unworthiness of the servants but only by God?

In what then did the Son of God revolutionize Religion but that by the Sacrifice of a Divine Lamb: the Power remaining, the Necessity of animal blood was abolished?

Have you never read what is written, and have you never read what is written? :

But you were already wise, and to attain the supreme happiness you only lacked the Power, and from whom could you obtain it but by taking it from the Almighty Son of God?

Your madness was matched by your ambition, so my Father will let you know the day He will call you to judgment for the scandal of those apostles of yours who tried to abolish the Glory of God by crossing the face of His Son with the glove of the Faith Predestined from Eternity for your salvation and the condemnation of others.

Like beasts without intelligence this evil audacity hallucinated your brains without brains that you inherited from your fathers, and you applauded the pride of those holy servants of the Devil who dared to abolish all that the Son of God and his Father built for the Salvation of all men.

But behold, he who does not want Salvation, so let his will be done and follow Satan to the Banishment, chosen of his own free will in the name of his Pride.

Behold their folly, a handful of clay aspiring to sit on the Throne of their Creator! Answer yourselves, is it not madness to envy God? What kind of pathology should be diagnosed in one who dreams of snatching away the Glory of the Son of God?

The Son of God gives and you say to Him: Vade Retro Jesus Christ?

Are you greater and wiser than the Almighty Only Begotten Son of the Creator of the Cosmos who, knowing that he was denied by Peter, did not even dare to question the Wisdom of his Omniscient Father?

Yet you not only questioned that Wisdom before which Space, Time and Matter kneel, but in contempt of the Successors of that Peter you denied him and deny God the Power to maintain his Election. What will you answer the Son of God when He calls you to Judgment, that He is guilty of your crime for not having taken from Peter his Glory on the day he denied Him?

Sons of the Reformation, your mother was a barbarian bitch who prostituted herself on the mountains and in the forests with those who raped her, and you came speaking of Holiness, you bastards born in the bed of a whore?

From the beginning you denied the Son of God and did not cease to rise up against his Crown until at last you declared yourselves kings over his peoples and lords over his flocks. You celebrated your orgies in accursed wars in whose rivers of blood you poured the chalice that you distributed until you got drunk among your worshippers. The Judgment of my Father upon your congregations shall be that of fire upon the dry valleys.

Your sins are like a mountain range that descends to hell. While you ascend seeking to dethrone the King of Eternity, you sink to the abysses where Satan has his throne. Thus has my God, the King, said to me: "I have given them a time, you, son, raise your Voice and let them listen to the horn of salvation until the order is given to close the gates, the virgins who are not found inside will be delivered to darkness".

The Glory of the Son is the Glory of the Father and as the Father gave to Aaron and his brothers the Power to forgive sins, through bloody sacrifice, so the Son gave it to Peter and his brothers, for the Son does nothing that is not shown to him by the Father, and the Father shows the Son all that he does, and as he sees the Father do so does the Son.

For this reason there was a Judgment of the Old World, and according to that Law there will be a Final Judgment. And he who believes himself to be clean of all sin, let him appear before that Almighty Son to whom his Father shows him the fact that he is God. He who does not believe himself to be a god, and does not suffer the madness of Satan, believing himself capable of measuring himself in a duel with the King of the Universe, let him run and grab hold of a brother of Peter and ask him for absolution.

Holy Mother Church has the Gates of Heaven open and whoever does not enter through her will not know the Light of God's Paradise.

What can I say to you, did you not read what is written?

"I have given them thy word, and the world hated them, because they were not of the world, even as I am not of the world".

Children of barbarians without the brains of men in the image and likeness of the children of God, the Commandment ye have fulfilled, and it shall be acknowledged unto you before the judgment seat of God, "Honor your fathers," and in honor of them, as they hated the Apostles, so ye hated them in their successors. Your fathers will tear out your hearts and curse you for having rebelled against Him who has the Power to save them, and by your accursed Pride you condemned them without remission.

This Swiss Apostle, like the German and the English and the other Swiss will be called to Judgment, accused of coming from Satan to lead the nations to the gates of Hell.

"He that is clean from sin let him cast the first stone." He who is not, let him run, for there is on Earth who holds the Keys to Heaven. For if great is the crime for having abhorred the One who made known to you the Word of God, still greater becomes the crime for having broken the Unity which on the Day of His Victory the Creator of the light that gives life to your eyes asked of His Father, saying:

But I pray not for these alone, but for as many as believe in me by his word, that they all may be one, as you, Father, are in me and I in you,
that they also may be in us,
and that the world may believe that you have sent me.

Your sin is not only of breaking Unity, your crime is without limit, for by your Division you have closed the Way to the Door of eternal Life to those who by your division despised Salvation in the Name of that Lord whom you claim to adore. The Condemnation of those wretches weighs upon your heads, and the day it falls and crushes you, you will know no other light than that of Satan's glory in the hells.

I, son of God, celebrate the Glory of my King and to Heaven I raise my Song. How beautiful was your Victory, how delightful to the senses to have your Crown before us. As a sheep that runs after its Shepherd, as a warrior that leaps at the command of its King, as a little bird that makes its nest in the branches of the Tree of Life, I fear nothing, nothing frightens me, nothing worries me. Thy Name is the strength of all the creatures of the Paradise of thy God, in thy Throne have all the Citizens of thy kingdom their Joy and their Freedom. My Happiness is complete.

Thou, King, the Love of God surrounds thee, his Arms are thy Glory, his Eyes the source of thy Peace. What do you want with us, sons of Hate, worshippers of stones, lords of war? We need nothing, we have everything. Your passions and your ambitions are rivers that flow into the sea of the dead. You are ghosts of the Past, corpses escaped from the pits that refuse to be banished from the valley of the living. There is no place for you in the house of Joy. You hate Peace and love Riches.

The Equality that comes from Love of God and neighbor detests you. It is for you as a harlot with a mortal disease the joy of Fraternity in God, our Creator. You are gods, you want to live as gods, and as gods you are ready to kill anyone who rises up against your mortal glory.

But I have heard from God my King a Voice calling for the Celebration of a Victory that Eternity has welcomed in its arms, and as a mother who adores her little one lulls him with kisses that never run out, so the Son of God is her Child, her Glory, and behold, all the peoples of Creation run to join in the Commemoration of the Foundation of the Kingdom of God.

Creation has waited expectantly for this Feast for centuries and centuries. No one will remember the Judgment. The tears will be of joy. The words of joy. No mention will be made of the Outcasts. They will live only in the memory of the Saints.

We are little birds on the banks of the River of Life. What has the ambition and passion of those madmen who dream of sitting on the Throne of the Son of God to do with us? Spread your wings, friends, take flight, brothers, Paradise has no end and wherever we go we are welcome. We are all One. One Creation. Citizens of the Kingdom of the Son of God.

My sins I have washed away. They were as red as scarlet and now my soul is as white as wool. Jesus Christ is the Door to Paradise and the Key is held by His Bride, the Holy Mother Catholic Church. She is called the Forgiveness of Sins. What She unties on Earth is untied in Heaven.

Father, I have sinned in thought, word and omission....

I absolve you in the Name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit....

Amen".

This is the power that God has given to his servants. But let him who is without sin cast the first stone. She who has been accused of Adultery is the Bride of the Lord. God take them confessed!

And let their eagerness be sufficient for each day.

PART SIX

THE SACRED NATURE OF THE PRIESTHOOD IN THE IMAGE AND LIKENESS OF CHRIST JESUS

53. If someone has accumulated goods of fortune by unjust means, these goods should not be used for the benefit of temples, convents, friars or nuns, but should be destined for indigent persons, that is, the needy.

It is therefore evident that Justice is God's business, and I believe that it was His Son, that is, Father and Son, who said that many will sit in the kingdom of God while others who thought they were assured of their place at the Table of Heaven will be cast out. "For the children of the world are more clever than the children of Faith." Having said this, let us begin.

The first thing is that all wealth that comes from crime is a crime before the Judgment Seat of God. God is not bribed. God cannot be bought. On the contrary, he who tries or thinks he can, deepens his crime. So the first thing to do is not to seek wealth through illicit means in which blood and crime are its roots. Killing with one hand and wanting to be absolved by the other, while the bloody hand remains in its course, is unforgivable before God.

St. Paul was not absolved of his crimes but because the criminal hand left its murderous task and put itself at the service of Life. To believe that one can go on killing and at the same time serving God is not proper to the Saints, it is a thing of beasts. And the beasts have no part in the Table of God, because only the Creation sits at this Table in the Image and Likeness of the Son of God, the Everlasting Model from which every Image acquires its existence. And we do not believe that this conduct, with one hand I condemn myself and with the other I save myself, was what we saw in that Son.

We observe that this conduct was typical of the Ancient Temple, in which premeditated homicide was paid for in advance, and with the sacrifice of an animal the executioner paid for absolution. The evil perfection of that system caused God to abhor the Temple of Solomon and to order the destruction of the Aaronite Priesthood.

Then to come saying that those are absolved from their crimes who with one hand enrich themselves by crime and offense so long as they leave in favor of the poor the fruit of their wicked conduct, is undoubtedly to restore the Ancient Temple to its functions. The Reformation denies Christ and resurrects Aaron.

Holiness bases its Principle on the Birth of the Spirit of Christ in man.

Truly he commits an unclean crime who, having been begotten to keep alive the Model in whose Image and Likeness we are all to be built, by doing the contrary of what is due becomes the scandal of many. "By your fault the Glory of God is blasphemed", and it is not understood that he who does so believes that he will be able to sit at the Table of Paradise, either priest or son of God, since the whole Creation, without exception between one and the other, neither by origin nor by Office, we are subject to the Universal Law of the Creator Spirit by which we all, without exception, are Citizens of the Kingdom of His Son, and as such Citizens we live in the light of the same Justice and Law.

Wanting to be the exception to this Law was the Cause of the rebellion of the house of the children of God led by Satan, about whom Moses said: "Generation of rebellious sons..."

The Righteousness of God is neither bought nor sold. The many crimes cannot be absolved by Christ on the basis of thirty pieces of silver. And not because Christ does not have the Power, but because his Spirit is the Spirit of God, and God has made his Word the Law.

Only by abandoning the path of crime and crime as a means of obtaining wealth can man stand before his Judge confident of attaining the Grace of Forgiveness. And as long as one remains in the crime, wanting to seek Grace through the offering of the fruit of blood, either to the temple or to the poor, as the author of this Thesis suggests, does not save the offender from his condemnation.

This salvation, which the Reformation raises, denies the New Temple and restores the Old Temple.

Another thing will be that, based on the wickedness of some servants who chose the way of Judas to that of the Disciples, and by participation in that evil behavior, the Reformation would make a cause bellis to rise in Rebellion against the one who knowing the Denials of Peter blessed the Election of God. Blessing that Son already announced when He said that His Father was greater than He. Contrary to this Declaration, the Reformers rose up to declare themselves Superior to the Son of God. Who is surprised, then, that from that seed Nazism was born?

Divine Doctrine says that only by abandoning the path of crime can man be reconciled with his Creator and appear before the Tribunal of His Son in the hope of receiving the Grace of Final Absolution.

Therefore, what is convenient for that man who earned his wealth in an illicit way is to earn forgiveness by making that wealth the key to his seat at the Table of Paradise, that is, by making it rain down in life on those who need someone to protect them from those who, being what he was, have no intention of accepting the Grace of Faith.

Now it is evident that he who premeditatedly gives himself to this path condemns himself, for to want to use the Grace of God to sow the world with blood and desolation in souls is not proper to Christ. And it is precisely this door of evil hypocrisy that the Reformation opens, or as its first apostle would say:

"!...sin, sin, sin, kill, murder, murder, rob, rape, and violate even the mother of God, because the Blood of Christ washes away all your crimes and offenses."

Whether this came from God or from the Devil is up to each one to define.

I only know, because in his spirit of Intelligence he has begotten me who has conceived me for God, that upon such weighs the Condemnation written for Satan. He who premeditatedly seeks illicit riches in the hope that he will buy his Judgment by having part of it reverted to the poor, or to the Temple, is an object of Condemnation before God. And as we all know, the Son does what the Father shows Him, and what the Father has shown Him is what He does. As God is Incorruptible, so is His Son. Who is surprised then that the nation of Switzerland, founded on this evil gospel, has become the treasury of wealth established on Crime and Delinquency? For living on the Innocent Blood, that Innocent Blood will rise at the Judgment to condemn the nation established on that evil foundation.

55. Whoever says that a repentant man is not forgiven this or that sin; whoever says such a thing does not act in the place of God or Peter, but of Satan.

Repentance that does not ask for the Grace of Christ, that is, the Pardon of God, which only God can offer, by not receiving the Grace of Divine Absolution, which alone frees the soul from the fruits of the crime, cannot bring about the resurrection of the man whom the crime has killed. Therefore, I, child of God, affirm, against this apostle of Satan, that the Repentance that is not confirmed in the Pardon of Christ, who lives in the Temple of His Bride, remains exposed to Judgment. For he who neither accepts nor wants the Pardon of Christ on Earth cannot hope for the Grace of Eternal Absolution before the Judge whom as a man he rejected.

Repentance is the Call of God to the Temple, where Christ lives, to receive His Forgiveness, gratuitously, by reason of the Power given by God to His Servant, the New Priesthood established by Jesus Himself, His Sempiternal Universal High Priest, who being the Church His Body, all of Her participates in His Power, granted by God to Him, her Spouse and Lord.

Without Repentance, Grace is seed that falls on sterile ground, certainly. For he who seeks the Pardon of Christ without repenting of his crime discovers before God that he will remain in his behavior, and by the constancy in his crime he makes himself abominable to His Justice, so that by deceiving the Servant he does not deceive his Lord, who will be the one who will finally judge him, and before His Presence he will have to answer for the constancy in the crime.

It is up to the Servant of Christ to administer his Grace. It is his Lord whom God has invested with His Glory by placing in His Hands the Lordship over all His Creation. However, God has not created the Devil, ergo: the servants of the Evil Sower are not his Creation. Failure to fall on his knees before Christ exposes every man to the damnation of "that generation of rebellious sons" of which Moses spoke, and we know that they were children of God, Satan their Chief, who believing they could bring God to his knees on the basis of his Father's Love, were imitated by his disciples of the Reformation, who, won to Hell, believed they could bring Christ to his knees on the basis of the Knowledge of Jesus being the Son of God.

The Logic of the Reformation was evil because taking the Son at His Word, when He says that “he who believes in Him is not judged but passes into eternal life”, they took Him at His Word and preached that regardless of the crimes and genocides and fratricidal wars freely and voluntarily undertaken, as long as one confesses that Jesus is Lord they nullify the Power of God to judge the World. This Logic was what led that generation of rebellious children, “not of this creation” as St. Paul later said, to declare war on God in the belief that the Love of the Father for his children would annul in God his Justice.

Repentance is worthless, then, if it is not confirmed by the Priest of Christ, who lives in the Temple of His Bride. Repentance without the Grace of Forgiveness, which rains upon the soul Reconciliation with God, its Creator, does not bear the fruit of Love by which eternal Life enters the being and raises its head before its Divine King.

This Eternal Truth is proved by the high criminality which the Reformers put into act, the fruit of whose doctrine was the Flood of Blood which fell upon the nations of Europe.

In conclusion, Repentance does not lead to eternal Life if it does not receive the Grace of Christ's Forgiveness. Man can neither forgive himself nor forgive his fellow men as far as eternal life is concerned. Man is not the Lord of eternal life, it is Jesus Christ, whom God has seated as Almighty King on the Throne of His Kingdom.

56. He who only for money forgives certain sins makes common cause with Simon and Balaam and is a true apostle of the devil.

The blasphemy in this thesis is manifest. “Freely you receive it, freely give it”. The Pardon of Christ is freely offered by his priests.

The First of all the Priests of the New Temple, Jesus, we see him forgiving sins without asking anything in return except that “Go and sin no more”. We see that according to the perversion of the Law of the Old Temple, whoever had just paid his absolution for a crime committed with the blood of a lamb as soon as the sacrifice was consummated, paid the priest to buy another lamb in order to absolve himself of the next crime. This abomination is the one that God announced he would cast down and it was the abomination against which his Son rose up and put an end to it.

Holiness is not in forgiving the multitude of sin but in the fulfillment of the Word: “Go and sin no more”. So that he who forgives the multitude of sin to the sinner works his damnation as much as the very brute who trusts to save himself by making the Pardon of Christ a panacea of crime.

To accuse Christ of selling his Pardon is to blaspheme against God. And this is done exclusively by the Devil and his apostles.

To manipulate the question of Indulgences to deny the Power of Christ was a full-fledged Rebellion against the Lord of whom they said that as long as they pronounced

His Name they could be more evil than Satan himself: for God having given His Word that whoever believes in His Son Jesus passes from Earth to Heaven without suffering the sieve of the Last Judgment, keeping that Name on their lips they mock Him who bears that Name and His Father having said that: His Son cannot say a word against them!

The diabolical Malignity of the logic of the Reformation manifested itself in its supreme climax in the Thirty Years' War, but it did not reach its glorious ecstasy until the Second World War.

Indulgences did not look to the Pardon of Christ to the living. And therefore that his servants forgive sins, doing what is due, is independent of whether the sinner wants to satisfy his crime by making of the fruit of his sin an offering to Christ. It will be God, in his Son, who will judge all, servants, children and people. Neither the servant can stop administering the Pardon, nor the people stop asking for this Grace. Whoever wants to use it to mock God, will be confronted with God after his Death. It is not for any man to judge our fellow men, much less to judge Christ.

60.- I do not consider it wrong for a troubled person to pray for the grace of God for the dead. But to determine to pray on a certain date and for profit is not human, but diabolical.

The first question that some people ask themselves when reading this thesis, like the others, is the following: But who did they think they were, the wrongly called Reformers, to judge 16 centuries of Christian struggle to overcome ignorance, to get out of barbarism and to continue making the way to perfection of those who are aware that they were born to be the Living Reflection of the Image of the Son of God before all men?

Reading the works of those reformers one is amazed because being the opposite of the Living Image of that Son, as seen by their wars, their bloody hatreds and their criminal condemnations against those who did not have their Logic, even though they were the opposite of that Jesus in whom Love in the Defense of Truth and Peace, making the Word their only Strength, even being their antithesis, they preached the truth and peace, making the Word their only Strength; even being their antithesis, preaching Hate, Crime, Sin, and the Wars of extermination of their enemies, yet they demanded to be called DIVINE, and to be held as SAINTS.

This hypocrite says: I do not consider it wrong for a troubled person to pray for the grace of God for the dead.

And who did he think he was to determine before God what is good and what is bad? Does the Creator have to get down on his knees before his Creation? This is precisely what Satan wanted to do. And believing that by playing with the Love of God as Father he could achieve this, he conjured himself ad eternum into open rebellion against his Spirit. We see this in Jesus' encounter with Satan. "Worship me on your knees and I will give you all the kingdoms of the world".

That is what Henry VIII did, getting down on his knees before Satan and accepting from his hand the Empire that Jesus rejected. For we know that His Empire was given by God to the Catholic Kings. Neither to England, nor to France, nor to Germany. These three nations rebelled against God's Empire in fighting against the Empire that Hell raised to destroy Christ on Earth while the Reformation killed Him in Man.

So who were these hypocrites who abhorred their fathers and came to forbid us all to have ours in our prayers and thinking that we have all been exposed to the Law of Death : to pray to God for their souls?

Who are these hypocrites to impose their law of abomination towards their parents and blaspheme against the Church for determining acts that only concern the children of those of us who have our progenitors sleeping awaiting the Judgment of Eternity? Do we want to see our parents condemned to the Banishment of Creation? It seems that these hypocrites with souls as hard as a rock out of the bowels of the fire of the earth do not remain in love with their parents, and abhorring those who gave them being once they bury them, they erase their existence from their hearts.

Wicked hearts forged in the forges of Reformation Hatred against Christ and His Bride did not hesitate to invoke upon them the Curse of God upon those who tear from their Book part or chapter:

“I testify to everyone who hears my words of the prophecy of this book that, if anyone adds to these things, God will add upon him the plagues written in this book; and if anyone takes away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God will take away his part from the tree of life and from the holy city which are written in this book.”

These hypocrites, sons of barbarians at war with the Christian Civilization since their very Roman Catholic origin, in order to justify their wickedness, have torn out parts and whole chapters from the Book of God, among them that of the Maccabees, without which it is impossible to understand the final Prolegomena of the Prehistory of Christianity, on the one hand, and the Prayer for the Sleeping Fathers, on the other. Is it not written? :

Thou shalt honor thy father and thy mother"

And also:

I have NOT come to abrogate the Law.

But these hypocrites DID come to abrogate it, and denying the Prayer for the parents who sleep, they denied the Honor and Honor due to those who put us on the Path of eternal life and for them we ask with an open heart to the One who loves us as our Father that as Judge He may have Mercy for the sins that all of us and them, exposed to the Law of the Science of Good and Evil, commit.

Each one, therefore, knows the one he serves, and who better can know his father than a son?

It was not a servant of God, much less a son, who wrote: But to determine to pray at a certain date and for gain is not human, but diabolical.

The servant knows his Lord, and the son his Father. If the Lord and Father were accused of having demons and serving the devil, what could be expected of Satan's servants!

Just the following:

61.-Holy Scripture knows nothing of that special character which the priests have finally appropriated.

It denies that Christ is Jesus. And even if Jesus be True God of True God, it denies that Christ, the High Priest of the New Priesthood, Head of the Church of Priests, from whom the priest receives his Reality; it denies that this Priesthood has any special character whatever.

He denies that Holy Scripture speaks of this New Temple, of this New Priesthood.

Who but Satan can deny what the Holy Spirit writes in His Letter to the Hebrews? Who but Satan's apostles can deny that Christ is the Head of the Church and that He being the Supreme Pontiff of the New Temple, His Body is a body of priests in His Image and Likeness?

In this Thesis it is not only denied that Christ is Jesus, it is denied that Jesus is the Christ, the Divine High Pontiff that God has given to His New Temple, and from whose Special Character, "says the ignorant", His whole Body receives its Being.

The Sacred Scriptures are permeated with the Coming of this Christ, of whom in Heaven as on Earth no one, except the confidants of God, knew who He would be. Not even Satan himself, who appeared before God as one who walks around the house, knew it, hence when he meets the Son of Eve he has no idea that he is before Jesus, the Firstborn Son of God, whom he, Satan, knew as the King of kings and Lord of lords of the Empire of Heaven, since he himself, Satan, was the prince of that Kingdom and had as King of kings that same Jesus. The Evil One had no idea who the One who said "GO BACK SATAN" really was.

The Christ, who by the flesh was to be born of a daughter of Eve, was Incarnated by the Almighty Only Begotten Son of the Lord and Creator of the Cosmos. Before the beginning of the Mourning of Vengeance the murderer of Adam was already dead. He did not know it and it was believed that he was facing a man born like any other. And yet the Law was clear:

"From the blood of one son of God, God will claim Vengeance at the hand of another son of God."

This is the Mystery of the Incarnation.

Thus, had a man born of the flesh of another man been elevated to the Universal Christian Supreme Pontificate, the Catholic priestly body would not have been able to participate in the Sacred Character of the one who by God's Love for His Creation came to receive as a New Name: "Christ".

For God so loved the world that He gave us His Son so that through Him we might be saved. And the Son so loved His Father that He took for Himself this New Name, so that in His Blood, the Blood of Christ, His Blood, His Priestly Body might receive the Sacred Character of the Power to Forgive Sins, the greatest Power that exists on the face of the Earth, for it is the Power of God to bind in Heaven what is bound on Earth, and to unbind in Heaven what is untied on Earth.

Denying to the Body of Christ this Power, the Reformation denied that Christ was Jesus, and that Jesus not being the Christ: the power to forgive sins is a thing of men, not of God. Thus Confession is abolished as a Sacrament and the Grace that comes from Divine Forgiveness is despised and blasphemed as an Abomination.

As said, like master, like servants. If the Lord called the Bridegroom the son of Satan, what would not the servants of that evil lord call the Bride?

No one appropriates the power of God. God gives them to those He loves so that He may manifest His Love to all His creatures.

49. The greatest scandal that I know of is that clerics are forbidden to marry, but are allowed, if they pay money, to have intercourse with harlots.

To condemn the whole generation of a man is to believe oneself to be Almighty and Omniscient God. To want to curse an entire Civilization in the process of taking off from the deepest Barbarism for an epoch of corruption is that of a merciless judge, of a historian without humanity.

It is therefore curious that at the time of the celebrated Humanism, the most dehumanizing and dehumanizing current known until then in Christian Civilization, which made of man the most dangerous beast, and on the way to becoming the most lethal beast that the centuries to come would know, arose. No less curious is it that the leaders of Humanism did not rise up to unmask such masters of Hate, Crime and Holy War.

In this Thesis this apostle of the Reformation, following the doctrine of his brothers in Satan, denies once again Christ as Head of the Church, denies that the Church is the Creation of God.

He denies the Doctrine of the Holy Spirit, from St. Peter and St. Paul to St. Augustine and St. Thomas.

It denies that Christ is the Incarnation of the Holy Spirit, who lives in the Father and in the Son.

And it denies the Creation in the Image and Likeness of God. In this case the Creation of the Christian Priesthood in the Image of Christ Jesus, Supreme Pontiff, in whose Image and Likeness the Catholic Priesthood is begotten in man.

The Image is the Model from which the Life-giving Reflection of man is begotten. God having ordained that the Model of the New Priesthood should be the Priesthood of Christ Jesus, the Virginité of Christ is part of the Character of his Body begotten by God for the Adoration of his Son before the whole Creation. For the Adoration that the Son gives to the Father, body and soul, is the Adoration that his Bride offers to God in her Lord and Bridegroom.

The Rejection of the Priest's Virginité is the rejection of the Omniscience, Almighty Power and Wisdom of God the Father and the Son who have arranged the Supernatural Creation of this Holy Body in which the Truthfulness of God in the Son and of the Son in God is established before all Creation so that the Lie will never again find fertile ground in his Kingdom.

The Catholic Priesthood is a Consecrated Body, supernaturally begotten in the Virginal Conception of Christ, born to be the Living Temple in which the Divine Truthfulness of the Son, whose doubting denies the Truthfulness of the Father, is present for Eternity before all the Peoples of Creation.

The Catholic Priestly Church, in the Image and Likeness of its Sacred Head, is the Temple of Divine Truthfulness.

To deny this Sacred Supernature that makes the Priest the Living Temple of the Holy Spirit, is to deny the Power of God to engender this Supernatural Body that in soul and body belongs to its Lord.

The other thing, that there are those who burn themselves and it is necessary to let them marry, without being excluded from the People of God but without participating in the Fullness of Christ, has already been said by the Holy Spirit. The other thing, that those who burn themselves declare themselves Enemies of the Divine Model that God has given to the Priestly Body of Christ, this is an Abomination that does not come from God but from the Devil.

So those who fall tempted by the Serpent and want to justify their Weakness by blaspheming the Name of the Bride of the Lord know that they declare War to the Creation of God, who disposed that the Christian Priest should have in the Priesthood of Christ Jesus his Living Model.

Anything that deviates from this Model does not come from God.

The Divine Ordination looks to Eternity, it is not dissolved once past the Earth. The Priest on Earth remains a Priest in Heaven: Living Temple of the Holy Spirit in which the Truth of the Divine Nature of Jesus Christ, King and Lord, is manifested.

Indeed, he who embraces, let him marry, but does not demand to continue to participate in the Fullness of Christ. Now, he who for the Love of God wants to continue working for the Salvation of all, has in the Lord a King who will love him forever as a Citizen of his Kingdom.

The other thing, that some servants offend his Office, and are a scandal to the people, this takes nothing away from the Creation of God, and only to them should their crimes be imputed. No Christian can or should feel his Faith and the Strength of his Hope threatened by reason of an isolated corruption, especially when the Holy Spirit has already told us that the Faith, although purified, corrupts. This is speaking of those in whom it is corrupted, for if it were in everyone, none of us would exist.

We are witnessing in our time the struggle between this corruption and holiness. That the Victory is of the Lord, we should not doubt it. Those who should tremble are those who have used the Office as a wall behind which to hide their crimes.

So if it is bad to offend Christ by imitating the worst men, it is worse to rise up against God and reject Christ as the Model of the Christian Priesthood. These you will have and will have to answer before God when you are called to Judgment.

May God catch you confessed, because of the Unity that you broke, you will have to answer for the countless souls that, scandalized by your wars and crimes, have been removed from the Door of Eternal Life.

PART SEVENTH

THE DOCTRINE OF THE ANTICHRIST

What is the Gospel? Is it the word of a man who decides to moralize at his own risk and in his own name about the moral conduct of other men? Was Jesus Christ a new kind of Socrates?

Questions of this species could be stored in our minds. In fact all the answers that were sought and found outside the Doctrine of the Roman Catholic Apostolic Church were given in a particular capacity, because they took the Hero of the Gospel for just another saint, a child of God like any other, or a sage like so many others with a particular message and a very concrete vision of what man is.

In the most psychedelic cases they saw him as a magician, a kind of healer, a sorcerer and even a servant of Satan. The Holy Spirit nipped in the bud those visions that converted Jesus Christ to their interests and thoughts, forgetting, some out of foolishness and others out of stupidity, that it is not God who must serve Man but Man who is called to serve God.

When the author of these 67 Theses writes:

48.-If anyone through weakness or ignorance feels scandalized, he should not be left in his weakness or ignorance, but must be strengthened, so that he may not consider sin that which is not sin.

In writing this the author, the Swiss Zwingli, forgets that he is speaking because Jesus Christ exists and in speaking in this way he is referring to the Gospel, reducing both to the category of simple products of human reality.

The Gospel is not a human product, nor was Jesus Christ, nor is he, nor will he ever be a production of man. Jesus Christ was not a holy man, nor a magician, nor a sage in the style of men. The Gospel of Jesus Christ is not a Platonic Dialogue, nor a philosophical treatise. And whoever forgets this falls into the abyss into which the Reformers fell; an abyss of foolishness, ignorance and stupidity into which these theses sank and dragged with them the illiterate, brutes and potential fratricides in whom this potential became an act, as the History of the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries demonstrates and makes evident.

The Gospel has its origin in the Mouth of God the Father. Jesus Christ, His Son, did not stop saying it, His Father had sent Him to make known to us the Doctrine of His Father, which He had heard from His Mouth and had kept in His Being during the years of His life on Earth.

The Gospel is not the invention of the thought of Jesus Christ Himself. The Gospel is not a revolutionary mortal compendium that breaks with the Old Testament morality. God gives a Body to his Doctrine, he makes it Man. Christ Jesus is that Doctrine made Man, who speaks in the words of Man for all men to hear.

The Word has become flesh, and the Word is the Word of God.

Jesus Christ is the Living Temple in which the Word of God lived since He sent Him to our World to make known to us the Doctrine of Eternal Life. And before leaving, the Son built for the Word of his Father a Living Body in which that Doctrine will live forever for Eternity: it is the Catholic Church, his Body, his Wife, whose Doctrine will be the Gospel of God here on Earth and in eternity in Heaven.

By saying what the Swiss said above, the author breaks with God and with his Son, reduces the Divine Doctrine to a mere doctrine of men and from that position he raises himself as superior to Jesus Christ himself, whom he takes out of the way to put himself there.

The Doctrine of God the Father is the Doctrine of his Son: the Doctrine of Father and Son is the Doctrine that lives in the Church, among men here on Earth, and among the children of God in the World from which Jesus Christ descended, King and Lord over all the peoples of God's Creation.

As a man, without invoking the Spirit of God, and speaking for men about moral conduct, the words of the Swiss neither take away nor add absolutely nothing to the Gospel, it is the sound of a flute dog seeking fame and through fame Power to do what the powerful have always done, to live at the expense of the sweat of others. Nothing to object to! Everyone, within the Natural Law, is free to aspire to be more perfect, without departing from the Christian conduct among whose principles he claims to live. The problem arises when the Doctrine of Eternity, given by God for all the peoples of His Kingdom and His children, is tried to be set aside and to sit down from the Throne of the Son of God, which is what the Swiss does in these Theses, for his Evil and the Evil of those who followed him.

What is Sin and what is not Sin is legislated in the Gospel. Anyone who pretends to add to its Divine Principles his own moral axioms rebels against the Supreme Lawgiver of the Universe, whose Law has its Origin in Love for His Creation.

Strange way was that of the Reformers to be the Living Manifestation of that Love of the Creator calling for the criminal destruction of all Catholics. For this Crime they will have to answer before the Tribunal of the Son of God.

Of the Wars proclaimed against their brothers of Europe by those Reformers and princes who declared themselves heads of the national churches, and from that status of divinities among men rose up against the Bride of Christ, they and their peoples will have to render accounts before a tribunal in whose Law “Eat NOT, for in the day that thou eatest thou shalt die”, is Sacred Law. Because those proud sons of barbarians, even knowing that the Son of God preferred to die rather than to kill, did not follow His example; they preferred to follow the example of Cain, to be a disciple of Satan and to kill their own brother.

We know that God is Love, and God lives in Jesus Christ. And there is no one in this world, nor will there be in the eternal world, who will separate us from His Doctrine of Fraternity without limits among all the peoples of Creation. And anyone who sows in the Kingdom of God the Seed of Hatred to his neighbor is an Enemy of God and of his Creation.

We are God’s Creation, children of the Mud, which by His Infinite Power He has raised up to make us partakers of His Eternal Nature, and by His Love of Father Creator we are sustained in the Eternity of His Paradise. And whoever raises the battle-axe against his neighbor is guilty of Judgment.

Thus, continuing with his pathological Complex of Moral Superiority, not over men, but over God himself, the Only Begotten Son, Creator and Our Father, Jesus Christ, the Swiss continued to write:

54.- Christ has borne all our pains and sufferings. Whoever attributes to acts of penance what is Christ's alone errs and offends God.

Whence we see that one who did not recognize the Almighty Only Begotten Son of the Creator of the Cosmos and Lord of Eternity, YAHWEH GOD, as the Word of God, his DOCTRINE MADE FLESH, annuls with his Evil Dementia the Word of that Son: “Go and sin no more”.

On the contrary, following one Reformer after another, Penance is abolished and in its place rises the New Law: “Sin, sin, sin, until sin comes out of your eyes, for by Faith all your filthiness is absolved by the Power of the Blood of the Lamb of God”.

And this filthy satanic doctrine rises as Reformation against the Wisdom of the Holy Spirit that calls all to Resurrection by the Grace of Baptism operated in the Soul and Being of all men.

The Doctrine is firm. Penance is the Act of the Will by which the fall in the Offense to God, to his children and to men is banished from the soul. Born in this Doctrine, the Beloved Church of her Lord absolves from Sin, and opens for her through Penance the Door of the one who, tasting the goodness of her Savior, and the Love that rests on her heart as God the Son, turns with all her strength to correct her steps and follow in the footsteps of those who cleared the field and opened the Way to Paradise.

Forgetting this Doctrine, but knowing the brutes of the Alps, the Swiss dared to speak of Penance annulling the Doctrine of the Holy Spirit, and following the example of his brothers in arms in the Evil Sowing of the European International Fratricidal War, that of the 30 Years, who by "Faith alone" opened themselves to all crimes, crimes to be imputed to the Blood of Christ, this Zwingli abolished the Necessity of Penance as a personal act of overcoming weakness : in the Promise to resist Temptation and never to surrender to Sin.

The servant of the Evil Sower says that the strength of the Christian is worthless, that following the Doctrine of "Go and sin no more" was not a Divine institution. On the contrary, the Glory of the Blood of Christ is manifested, according to those servants of the Evil One, in sinning again, and sinning and sinning, without any Fear of the Judgment of God, because the Blood of Christ forgives the Baptized all the crimes to commit after Baptism.

Jesus Christ said "Go and sin no more". The Reformers said: Do NOT be idiots, that Jew was a madman, go and sin again, the more the better. For the more you sin the more the greatness of the Power of redemption is manifested."

So even Adolf Hitler.

Whoever sins and does not do Penance, that is, does not place before God a firm resolution of will not to fall back into the abyss that led him to Confession, exposes himself to Judgment for Rebellion against the Doctrine of the Gospel.

Namely: Baptism is a Resurrection to a New Life that engenders in Creation a New Man in whom Sin, (the Offense to God, to the children of God and to men) is banished for eternity. He who rises by Faith dies for Sin, makes the word of his God, "Go and sin no more" his Law, and has as Law his Word: "Do not eat, the day you eat, you will die".

Thus, those who having been Resurrected to Eternal Life believe that Faith immunizes them against the Fruit of the Cursed Tree, which is Hatred, gateway to Fratricide and War, unites with Satan.

To those of you who let yourselves be seduced by the Doctrine of the Antichrist, may God grant that you may be taken in confession and overcome Penance with Victory on the Day of Judgment, because otherwise you will be judged according to the Evil Tempter, to whom you gave yourselves in this world in exchange for fame and glory.

Those of you who have intelligence, judge whether there is any in the following thesis:

62.-Holy Scripture also does not recognize priests other than those who preach the Gospel.

What is it saying, that the priesthood is not a Work of God the Father and Son? That the Priesthood of Jesus Christ was not God's Most Holy Choice? That the Gospel is nothing other than a Human Moral and consequently anyone can make it his own and develop it according to his understanding and time?

Then the most perverse and evil can preach what he reads and by that preaching be called a Priest in the Image and Likeness of Christ?

Do you mean to say that a New Temple was not established after the destruction of the Old one and that everyone can erect his own? And that, ergo: wasn't the Church the Work of God the Father, and not having been so, anyone can create his own church once Jesus Christ did his own?

Did not God announce before it happened the Wonderful Work He was going to do, such that if He told it to those who did not know it, they could not believe the Work He was going to do?

What part of the Foundation of Christianity from the Incarnation to the Resurrection does not fall within that Wonderful Work of which the Catholic Church has been a Witness from the Beginning to our days and will continue to be so for Eternity? Does the Reformer reject the Incarnation, the Necessity of the Election of the Son of His Uncreated Womb to perform that Wonderful Work which, being that Son "True God of True God", it was for Him in person to perform in Union with His Father?

God raises the Model of the New Priesthood, Christ Jesus, and the Reformer rejects this Divine Model?

Were not all the Preachers of the Gospel chosen one by one by God in Person? Does the Reformer reject the Necessity of the Divine Election for the Priesthood in the Image and Likeness of Christ Jesus, the High Priest of the New Temple for the Worship of God the Father?

Then God was an absolute Idiot, because having been able to leave the preaching in the hands of anyone, alienating from his Work his Father's Love, he gave his Son to the wolves?

The consequences of this thesis were filthy, and its malignity spread over the European fields, causing an abominable world war to rage over its peoples, for which all the princes and the Reformers will have to answer before the Final Tribunal of the Almighty Son of God

But the Reformer was not an Idiot, although God claims to be one when he writes:

63.- About the latter he commands that they should be honored, that is, that they should be provided with what is necessary for their sustenance.

As a preacher of the Reformation, not of the Gospel, the Swiss wanted to live on the sweat of others. And to live as a Divine Preacher of the Protestant Reformation deserved. And as it was seen, and we know that anyone could declare himself "divine preacher of the new gospel of hatred against the Catholic brother", Cain became the Master to follow, the Model of the New Protestant Priesthood.

In short, Hell accepts into its kingdom all preachers of the wonders of War; the more venom in their mouths, the greater and more glorious

So Hell displaying the goodness of its poison, the Reformer returns to throw in the mud the Doctrine of God, Father and Son, reducing it to a simple moral philosophy, saying:

64.- All those who recognize their errors should not be punished, but let them live and die in peace, and as regards the income they had been enjoying as priests, let this question be looked at with Christian charity.

As a good Swiss, for whom Gold was the Mother of the Lamb of the Reformation, the Catholic priest, if he was recycled and ceased to be garbage in the image and likeness of Christ, there was no need to kill him, it was enough to let him die in peace, and once expelled from his Office, it was not necessary to let him die like an abandoned dog in the street, as good Christians practicing the new reformed charity, it would be enough to throw the hard bread that would be left over to the “new divine preachers” to that confessed heretic, “a matter of Christian charity”.

To the one who would not be recycled, as the opposite of Antichrist is Christ, and of Life is Death: the grave is what suited him.

The preacher of the Gospel of Hate should not forget that it is God, according to his Evil Doctrine, who from Eternity decrees the death and life of all, and He being the only One Guilty of the Death of all, to HIM and to HIM alone should be imputed the Crime against the Catholics, so that he who dies does so because that is his part in the Theater of Salvation, and he who kills does not commit a crime but the hand of God is revealed in him for the glory of his Cainite servants.

Thus:

65.- As regards those who do not recognize their errors, God will already judge them according to his divine justice. Consequently, corporal punishment should not be applied to them, unless they behave so inconsiderately that there is no other way to treat them.

As the Wolf approaches the end of his “preaching” he takes off his sheep's fleece and begins to release through his Mouth the Venom of the Serpent that led the Human Race to Ruin with those accursed words: "NO, no, you will be like the gods, knowing the science of good and evil". Translating. He who does not make War cannot feel like a god. It is in War and by War that man is elevated to the condition of the gods.

Needless to say that Jesus Christ, rejecting that Cursed Fruit, ceased to be “a god”, eternal state that the Reformers reached thanks to their War of Hate to Death against the Catholics.

And ignoring this Reality, the preacher of Hell says that God will judge those who resisted to eat of that cursed fruit and instead of proclaiming himself King, he allowed himself to be led to the Slaughterhouse of Calvary and the Roman Circuses. The Reformer applauds Cain and spits on the corpse of Abel. Satan was his Master.

Finally, it is not enough to take away the priesthood and push Christ out of his way, he rises as a prophet too:

66.-Now all the ecclesiastical hierarchs must humble themselves and raise the cross of Christ instead of raising the ark of money. If they do not do so, they will sink; for the axe is already laid at the roots of the tree.

Indeed, the Declaration of War against the Priesthood in the Image and Likeness of Jesus Christ had already been signed by Germany and the countries of its orbit. Now it was the turn of Switzerland and France to sign it. War was inevitable. The axe had already been raised to destroy the Tree of Life of the Catholic Church. The United Kingdom, Germany and the Netherlands, the Scandinavian and Central European Countries, all united, with Switzerland and France, against the Priesthood in the Image and Likeness of Christ; not even God could prevent the League of Protestant Nations in a Thirty Years' War from overthrowing what it had cost HIM sixteen long centuries to raise up.

So much work for nothing. So many martyrs for what?

They, the Body of Antichrist, whose Head was Satan, the Devil, the ancient serpent, the Dragon that terrorized the Paradise Empire of God in Two Universal Wars before the Creation of our World, they, the Reformers and their princes, were going to succeed in tearing down the Living Temple of the Holy Spirit from where the Name of the Only Begotten and Firstborn Son of God, Jesus Christ, spread to all the nations of the Earth.

67.-If anyone wishes to discuss with me about the interest on the loan, the tithe, the unbaptized children or the Confirmation, I offer myself gladly to give an answer. But let no one attempt to argue with me by sophistic arguments or by human quackery, but let him acknowledge Holy Scripture as the sole judge beforehand, so that the truth may be found or stand, if, as I hope, it has already been found. Amen. May God be with us! Amen.

Jesus Christ is the UNIVERSAL TEACHER of all the children of God. Did HE argue with Satan?

His Disciples in the Spirit of intelligence, formed in His Image and Likeness, we do not argue with the servants of Satan.

CONCLUSION

He that would be saved, let him repent and make Confession and Penance, for to this end God has made known His Will of the unification of all the churches, that all the churches may make Confession and Obeying God run and leaving behind the doctrines with which they were deceived by the Devil, whom they welcomed as Master and Lord, become one with the Catholic Church, Trunk of the Tree of Life, whose fruit is the Faith of Jesus Christ, whose Doctrine is reduced to a single Principle: "Love God above all things, and your neighbor as yourself." For he who hates his neighbor does not love God, and he who does not love God will not enter Paradise.

Whosoever will expose himself to the Judgment of the Almighty Only Begotten Son of God, let him expose himself. But remember the Doctrine of God:

Lord we did in your name many miracles.

The Answer was:

Depart from me, ye workers of iniquity, go to Hell with the Devil.

He who loves God, loves his neighbor. And Hate is the opposite of Love.

God is Love, but He is also a Fire that in His Zeal for His Creation devours all that comes near to destroy it.

There is NO Salvation for the churches outside of Obedience to the Unifying Will of God. The "virgins" who are not found within the House of the Bridegroom, serving the Bride of the Lord, will not enter the Paradise of God.
